NLI AT WEST POINT

Due to the U.S. Military Academy appointment process, names of recruited cadet-athletes are not available until they arrive for Reception Day this summer. Therefore, the Academy will not have a release available at this time.

While National Letter of Intent Signing Day does not hold the same level of interest at West Point due to the fact that service academies cannot release the names of recruits at this time, signing day and the time that follows is an important day for the young men choosing to enter West Point.

"We are very excited," said Army coach Jeff Monken. "While our recruits are not signing binding letters of intent, they will sign a certificate of commitment to attend West Point. We are thrilled to know that they have made a pledge to attend the United States Military Academy. While the young men and their high school coaches are free to comment, we as a staff cannot."

QB Angel Santiago rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown and threw for 101 yards and a score in the season-opening victory at Michie Stadium on Friday night. Larry Dixon rushed for 107 yards as Army racked up 396 yards of total offense.

9/7 | Ball State 40, Army 14

Keith Wenning threw for 325 yards and two touchdowns at Scheumann Stadium. For Army, Larry Dixon ran for 113 yards, his second consecutive 100-yard game. Raymond Maples picked up 84 yards.

9/14 | #5/4 Stanford 34, Army 20

Kevin Hogan threw for three touchdowns to lead Stanford to a 34-20 victory at a sold-out Michie Stadium. Hogan connected on 11-of-18 passes. Ten different players collected rushes for Army, led by 96 yards from Terry Baggett. Larry Dixon ran for a touchdown and 22 yards. A.J. Schurr completed 4-of-5 passes for 25 yards and a touchdown, a six-yard toss to Edgar Poe. Angel Santiago was 2-of-5 passing for 24 yards and ran for 54 yards.

9/21 | Wake Forest 25, Army 11

Josh Harris rushed for 96 yards and two scores and Michael Campanaro caught four passes for 91 yards and a score as Wake Forest beat Army. Daniel Grochowski kicked a career-best three field goals for Army, connecting from 39 yards once and 32 yards twice. Terry Baggett rushed for a career-best 125 yards. Three Army quarterbacks completed 10-of-18 passes for 86 yards.

9/28 | Army 35, Louisiana Tech 16

At Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas, Texas, Terry Baggett rushed for a career-best 143 yards to pace an Army rushing attack that racked up 414 yards on the ground. Baggett rushed for two touchdowns. Trenton Turrentine picked up 81 yards, Angel Santiago 77 and Larry Dixon 70. Army limited Louisiana Tech to 57 rushing yard.

10/5 | Boston College 48, Army 27

Andre Williams rushed for 263 yards and five touchdowns to pace Boston College at Alumni Stadium in Chestnut Hill, Mass. Williams collected 30 carries and averaged 8.8 yards per rush to pace the Eagles. Larry Dixon ran for 125 yards and two touchdowns for Army, which racked up 326 yards on the ground. Thirteen players registered rushing attempts for Army. Angel Santiago completed 2-of-3 passes for 82 yards and a touchdown while Kelvin White connected on 3-of-8 passes. Xavier Moss hauled in his first career touchdown, a 75-yard strike from Santiago.

10/12 | Army 50, Eastern Michigan 25

Terry Baggett rushed for an Academy-record 304 yards and added four touchdowns as Army rolled past Eastern Michigan at Michie Stadium. Baggett established career bests in rushing yards and touchdowns. Army amassed 513 yards on the ground as part of its 551 yards of offense. Larry Dixon and Trenton Turrentine added 69 and 92 yards, respectively, to include a touchdown apiece.

10/19 | Temple 33, Army 14

Temple jumped out to a 26-0 halftime lead and held off Army. P.J. Walker threw for two scores and Temple returned a fumble for a touchdown. Larry Dixon led Army with 84 yards rushing and 29 yards receiving. Kelvin White threw a scoring pass to Patrick Laird.

11/2 | Air Force 42, Army 28

Anthony Lacoste ran for 263 yards and three scores to pace Air Force. Terry Baggett ran for 121 yards and a score and Angel Santiago threw for 109 yards and rushed for 61 yards and three touchdowns for Army.

11/9 | Western Kentucky 21, Army 17

Western Kentucky scored 21 second-half points to edge Army. Terry Baggett paced Army with 102 yards rushing. Antonio Andrews, who entered the game leading the nation in rushing, scored with 32 seconds left on a 2-yard run to seal the victory.

11/30 | Hawai'i 49, Army 42

Hawai'i held off a furious Army rally. Army scored 21 straight points in the third quarter to tie the game at 28 but could not complete the comeback. A.J. Schurr rushed for four touchdowns and threw for 122 yards, all in the second half. Terry Baggett ran for 81 yards and went over the 1,000-yard mark.

12/14 | Navy 34, Army 7

Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds rushed for 136 yards and three scores to lead the Midshipmen. Angel Santiago rushed for 40 yards and a score and threw for another 50 yards.

SPRING OUTLOOK

The Jeff Monken era of Army football officially gets underway with the beginning of spring practice.

Monken, named Army's 37th head coach on Dec. 24, 2013, will lead the Black Knights through spring ball, culminating with the Black-Gold Game on April 19.

"We want to develop a toughness, a mental toughness," said Monken. "We want to develop team spirit. We want the guys to play together and play for each other. We want to have tremendous work ethic and be self-disciplined and give a maximum effort on every play. Lastly, we want to learn our assignments and try to improve in our fundamentals: blocking, tackling, taking care of the ball, stopping the run, running the ball and really set a foundation for preseason camp."

Monken spent four seasons as head coach at Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

While at Georgia Southern, Monken recorded a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the programs' transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which will join the Sun Belt Conference next year, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under Monken, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken helped tradition-laden Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs this season due to its transitional status.

Monken immediately went to work at West Point recruiting and filling out his staff when hired and is set for the next step.

"Recruiting was a big part, obviously, right out of the box," said Monken. "It was right in the middle of recruiting season and that was really important. We have been getting to know these young men here as football players and personally. Hiring a staff and getting a team together. I'm really excited about this team, both players and coaches as well as support staff. It has been a process. We want to set the mindset for the entire organization of what the expectation is and what standards we need to set to meet those expectations."

Army will continue to run the triple-option offense

A brief position breakdown entering spring practice:

OFFENSIVE LINE

Center Ryan Powis and tackles Stephen Shumaker and Justin Gilbert helped Army finish third in the country in rushing last season at 309.8 yards per game and started all 12 contests.

Army used the same starting five in all 12 games in 2013. Tackle Michael Kime and right guard Zach Reichert are among the players who need to be replaced.

Other veteran plays returning include Matt Hugenberg, Nick Bennett and Drew Hennessey who all appeared in every game last season. Todd McDonald competed in five contests as well.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Six of Army's top eight pass catchers are returning, including freshmen Xavier Moss who led Army with 35 receptions and 463 yards last season. Chevaughn Lawrence made 10 catches for 105 yard and hauled in a touchdown pass.

Running backs Terry Baggett (six catches for 123 yards), Larry Dixon (3-48), Tony Giovannelli (2-29) and Matt Giachinta (2-17) also contributed to the passing game.

Edgar Poe appeared in three games during his rookie season and made one catch for a six-yard touchdown.

Army must replace the production of Anthony Stephens (10 catches for 58 yards) and Patrick Laird (three catches for 28 yards).

QUARTERBACKS

Army returns four quarterbacks who all competed during the 2013 season.

Angel Santiago started 11 games, threw for 592 yards and was third on the team with 593 rushing yards. Santiago connected on 46-of-92 passes for two touchdowns. He averaged 3.5 yards per carry on the ground and posted a team-best 10 touchdowns.

A.J. Schurr had one start and appeared in five games. He completed 14-of-25 passes for 196 yards and a touchdown and rushed 33 times for 102 yards and four scores.

Kelvin White played in six games and threw for 143 yards and a touchdown on 15-of-30 passing. He carried 26 times for 91 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Tevin Long competed in two games. He threw one incomplete pass and rushed seven times for 22 yards.

RUNNING BACKS

Army returns an array of running backs, including its top five rushers.

Terry Baggett led the squad with 141 carries for 1,113 yards and scored eight times. He averaged 92.8 yards per contest and 7.9 yards per carry.

Larry Dixon missed a pair of games in 2013 and rushed 11 times for 705 yards. He scored six touchdowns and averaged 6.4 yards per carry.

Trenton Turrentine was fourth on the team with 56 carries for 376 yards. He scored once and averaged 6.7 yards per carry.

Tony Giovannelli appeared in nine games and rushed 30 times for 223 yards.

Matt Giachinta played in all 12 contests, collected 27 rushing attempts for 112 yards and scored twice.

Aaron Kemper played in seven games during his rookie campaign and collected 44 yards on 12 carries.

Stephen Fraser carried nine times for 26 yards in 12 games played.

Fullback Hayden Tippett, who was sixth on the team with 149 yards rushing and Lawrence Scott who posted 35 rushing yards will both graduate in the spring.

Raymond Maples, a two-time 1,000-yard rusher, is applying for a fifth season after an injury. Maples rushed for 123 yards in three games before an injury and is awaiting word from the NCAA.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Army returns a host of players along the defensive line, including Dalton Mendenhall, Robert Kough, Joe Drummond, Richard Glover, Mike Ugenyi, Malcolm Hudson and T.J. Atimalala, all of whom earned starting assignments in 2013.

Ugenyi earned 10 starts and played in 12 games. He is the top returning tackler on the defensive line with 39. He also collected 6.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

Glover was credited with 34 tackles and 5.0 tackles for loss, while Kough registered 33 stops and a team-best 8.0 tackles for loss.

Drummond made 16 tackles last season, Hudson 15 and Mendenhall 14 before an injury shortened his season. Atimalala registered four tackles.

Jarrett Mackey (56 tackles), Kyle Maxwell (13 tackles), Holt Zalneraitis (11 tackles) and Clayton Keller (two tackles) are among the players who will graduate in the spring.

LINEBACKERS

Julian Holloway is the top returning tackler

among the linebacking corps. Holloway registered 42 stops and 4.5 tackles for loss in eight games before an injury ended his season.

James Kelley played in 12 games and collected 24 tackles in 2013, while Marcus Poling made 19 stops. Colin Linkul posted three tackles and two sacks.

Chasen Brown played in nine games and was credited with five tackles. Andrew King appeared in three games during his freshman campaign and collected three tackles.

Two of Army's top four tacklers will graduate in the spring. Thomas Holloway led the squad with 56 stops while Colby Miller registered 52.

SECONDARY

Geoffery Bacon, Shaquille Tolbert, Chris Carnegie, Hayden Pierce, Josh Jenkins, Stephen Ricciardi, Steven Johnson, Tyler Dickson, Lamar Johnson-Harris and Marques Avery headline an experienced secondary.

Bacon moved from linebacker to safety in 2013 and was second on the team with 63 tackles, despite missing four games. Tolbert was fourth on the squad with 56 tackles and broke up three passes and forced two fumbles.

Carnegie made 50 tackles and one interception, while Pierce registered 42 stops and two pass break-ups.

Jenkins intercepted two passes, made 34 tackles, broke up a team-best six passes and forced and recovered a fumble during his freshman campaign. Ricciardi posted six tackles and Johnson and Dickson five apiece. Johnson-Harris played in 11 games and Avery four.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Both punter Alex Tardieu and kicker Daniel Grochowski are among the special teams returnees.

Tardieu punted 51 times in 2013 and averaged 37.3 yards per boot. He totaled four kicks of 50-plus yards and 11 landed inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

Grochowski was successful on 8-of-11 field goal attempts with a long of 48 yards. He converted all 36 of his point after touchdowns. He also handled the bulk of kickoff duties with 46 kicks for an average of 58.2 yards.

Cale Brewer kicked off eight times, averaging 5.14 yards.

Sophomore Connor Farley is the lone snapper listed in the preseason prospectus. Andrew Ellerson, who handled long snapping duties in 2013, is no longer with the team.

HEAD COACH JEFF MONKEN

@COACHJEFFMONKEN
HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON
MILLIKIN, 1989

Jeff Monken was named Army's 37th individual head coach on Dec. 24, 2014. Army Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Boo Corrigan and U.S. Military Academy Superintendent Lt. Gen. Robert Caslen conducted a thorough national search before selecting Monken.

"We were fortunate to have an excellent pool of candidates to consider," said Corrigan. "We were very impressed with each of the individuals we interviewed. There was tremendous interest in the position nationally and we felt there were several very qualified candidates, but throughout the process Jeff separated himself from the others. His passion, energy and strong experience in turning around a program immediately helped him rise to the top of our list."

"We want a successful head coach who understands the challenges of working at a service academy, one who could help us win immediately and one who understands the importance of West Point's mission. We found that in Jeff," said Corrigan. "Jeff has been highly successful at every stop he has made both on the field and off. We expect him to experience that same level of success at West Point. We could not be more excited to have Jeff, his wife Beth, and their three daughters join the West Point family and lead our football program."

Said Caslen, "Jeff will help us to build leaders of character on and off the football field and is the perfect choice to lead our football program. As a former player, I am excited about Jeff's enthusiasm, desire to succeed and tremendous track record of success."

Monken spent the last four seasons as head coach at Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

During his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and was spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which will join the Sun Belt Conference next year, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under Monken, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs this season due to its transitional status.

"I am thrilled to accept the head coaching position at West Point," said Monken. "Not only is the United States Military Academy one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the world, it boasts one of the nation's richest, most historic traditions in all of college football. I am anxious to get started...meet our players, put our coaching staff in place, and begin preparations for the 2014 football season.

"There are so many people I would like to thank for this tremendous opportunity, starting with Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan and our Superintendent, Gen. Bob Caslen," continued Monken. "I am honored and humbled by their trust in me to lead the West Point football program. I have had the privilege of serving as a coach for several outstanding institutions and am thankful to all of the student-athletes, coaches, and administrators with whom I have worked. Because of their commitment, dedication, and loyalty, this opportunity to serve at West Point has been afforded to me. More than anyone else, I want to thank the men and women who have served and continue to serve our nation in the United States Army. I am proud to be your head football coach."

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons.

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader," said Johnson. "Jeff was a loyal assistant coach for me for many years and I'm excited for him and this opportunity."

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided Georgia Southern to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

In 2011, Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year as Georgia Southern's head coach, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State as part of a 10-5 season. Georgia Southern ended the season with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern reemerge academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons.

Not only was Georgia Southern successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional levels.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. Four out of five seasons, the Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004.

Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at the University Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State University. Monken moved to University of Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach and also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach as well.

"I'd like to thank U.S. Army Chief of Staff Gen. Ray Odierno, West Point Superintendent Lt. Gen. Bob Caslen, and all those who assisted in this process," added Corrigan. "We were able to move swiftly but judiciously thanks to the help of many and I feel very good about the result of our search. I am very confident that we have identified the perfect choice to lead our cadet-athletes and achieve the level of success we strongly desire for our football program."

A native of Joliet, Ill., Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth have three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JEFF MONKEN

Paul Johnson, Head Coach, Georgia Tech

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader. Jeff was a loyal assistant coach for me for many years and I'm excited for him and this opportunity."

Dan Radakovich, Director of Athletics, Clemson University

"Jeff Monken is one of the bright young coaches in college football. He is a leader and is well prepared for this opportunity. Coach Monken and his teams will be outstanding representatives of the U.S. Military Academy on and off the field. Congratulations to Army for making an inspired choice."

Pete Lembo, Head Coach, Ball State

"Jeff is a terrific guy and an outstanding football coach. He and his family will be a great fit at West Point. Jeff will be the perfect leader to re-energize the Army football program and build support in the community."

J.J. Wilcox, Safety, Dallas Cowboys, four-year letterwinner at Georgia Southern

"He was a great coach, a great man. He loves his team, loves his family and loves the game. Coach is a great fit for Army. He knows how to win and he knows how to handle players. He makes you want to run through a brick wall for him."

Charles Davis, FOX NFL Analyst

"Hire Jeff Monken from Georgia Southern and don't look back, Army. He understands the military system. He was an assistant at Navy for all those years they were riding roughshod. He understands how it works. He has a love of the military academy. The guy can coach. He digs the military, he understands it, he understands what's going on."

Brooks Keel, President, Georgia Southern University

"While the entire Eagle Nation is sad to lose Coach Monken, we are equally proud of what he accomplished here and of his move to Army. As a coach, Jeff Monken is, in my opinion, the whole package. He obviously knows the Xs and Os of football. But the thing that impresses me most about Jeff is his devotion to developing the entire young man, not just the athlete."

RANDOLPH-MACON, 1995

BRENT DAVIS
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
OFFENSIVE LINE
1ST SEASON
GEORGIA, 1997

Jay Bateman is in his first season with the Army football program and serves as defensive coordinator.

Bateman joins the Army coaching staff as defensive coordinator following three successful seasons in the same role at Ball State University.

An 18-year coaching veteran, Bateman helped Ball State rank ninth nationally in turnovers gained with 31 and 12th in turnover margin at +0.9. In the Mid-American Conference, the team was third in scoring defense.

In the past three seasons, Bateman mentored first-team All-MAC selection Jonathan Newsome as well as three second-team choices and helped two others earn third-team accolades.

Bateman began his coaching career at Hampden-Sydney College in 1997 before moving to Siena College in 1999. After one season as an assistant, Bateman was elevated to head coach in 2000 and spent four seasons running the Saints' program.

In 2004, Bateman moved to Richmond University, for a one-year stint before transitioning to Lehigh University in 2005 where Pete Lembo was the head coach. At Lehigh, Bateman helped tutor a defense that ranked sixth in the country.

Bateman then advanced to Elon University in 2006 and served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He guided linebacker Chad Nkang to All-America status as well as Southern Conference Player of the Year honors. Nkang was drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Elon won 35 games during Bateman's five seasons and collected at least one all-conference linebacker honor each season. Elon's defense ranked fourth nationally and led the Southern Conference in 2009 with just 248.33 yards allowed per contest.

Following his success at Elon, Bateman transitioned to the defense coordinator role at Ball State. After a 6-6 season in 2011, Ball State won nine games in 2012 and 10 the next season while competing in the Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl and the Go-Daddy Bowl, respectively.

Bateman is a 1995 graduate of Randolph-Macon College. He and his wife, Heather, have a daughter, Bea and a son, C.J.

Brent Davis is in his first year as an assistant coach with the Army football program.

He spent the last four seasons as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator and also coached the offensive line in his second stint in Statesboro, Ga. A veteran triple option coordinator, Davis helped the Eagles to three consecutive trips to the national semifinals. Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances. With Davis' charges blocking up front, Georgia Southern captured four consecutive FCS rushing titles as well as the 2004 scoring title with 47.0 points per contest. Eight lineman earned All-Southern Conference honors and three were voted All-American. Charles Clark won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2002, presented to the best offensive lineman in the Southern Conference.

Davis guided the running backs from 1997-99 and worked with Adrian Peterson, the 1999 Walter Payton Award winner and So-Con Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson collected All-America honors and amassed over 2,600 yards in 15 games. Peterson was drafted in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and played for eight seasons in the NFL.

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI, his final season as interim head coach, before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008 while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. In 2007, VMI produced four 500-plus yard games and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing and 34th in total offense.

Davis earned a pair of varsity letters at The Citadel as a tight end before transferring to Georgia. He lettered and earned a spot on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll before graduating from Georgia in 1997 with a degree in business management.

Davis and his wife Jen, a Georgia Southern graduate, reside at West Point.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TULANE, 1993

KEVIN CORLESS
INSIDE LINEBACKERS
1ST SEASON
N.W. MISSOURI STATE, 1982

Bob Bodine is in his first season as a member of the Army football coaching staff.

Bodine spent the last four seasons at The Citadel, three of them as the offensive coordinator and also coached the offensive line.

Under his direction, the Bulldogs have been among the most successful rushing teams in the country, ranking fourth at the Football Championship Subdivision level in 2013. Ben Dupree listed seventh nationally with 18 rushing touchdowns.

The 2011 squad landed third in the nation in rushing offense and fourth a year later.

Among the many all-league players mentored by Bodine were center Mike Sellers who received the Jacobs Blocking Award as the top offensive lineman in the Southern Conference and was a consensus first-team All-American in 2012.

Before joining the staff at The Citadel, Bodine spent four seasons as the offensive line coach at the Virginia Military Institute, two of which the Keydets led the nation in rushing.

Bodine began his coaching career at Tulane University, working with the offensive line and long snappers. He moved to Georgia Southern as a graduate assistant with the defensive line before earning a staff position.

At Georgia Southern, Bodine was responsible for outside linebackers, wide receivers and slot backs during his three seasons.

Bodine moved to Jackson State as the offensive line coach and Bethune-Cookman as the slotbacks coach and recruiting coordinator before accepting a position at VMI.

A three-year letterwinner and two-year starter as an offensive guard at Tulane, Bodine earned his degree in psychology in 1993.

Bodine and his wife, Joy, are the parents of twins Gabriel (Jake) and Gracie.

Kevin Corless in his first season with the Army football program.

Corless spent the past two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided linebackers and then served as co-defensive coordinator with Jack Curtin in 2013.

The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 squad beat Florida but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

During his tenure at Arkansas State, the defense finished among the top-40 FBS programs in at least one defensive category each season.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt 'Defensive Coordinator of the Year' for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories. ASU finished the 2008 season ranked in the top 20 for redzone defense and tackles for loss, but it was the upset of Texas A&M that earned national attention as linebacker Ben Owens intercepted an Aggie pass late in the game for the win.

In Corless' first season in 2002, ASU finished second in the Sun Belt Conference in five different categories, while the 2002 and 2004 squads posted national statistical rankings. The 2005 team won a Sun Belt championship and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Corless was at Northwestern State in 1995 as a defensive line coach and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 1999 with oversight of the linebackers during his final three seasons. Northwestern State made NCAA FCS playoff appearances in 1997, 1998 and 2001 and won two Southland Conference titles.

Corless played and graduated from Northwest Missouri State and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant where the team went 10-2 and qualified for the national playoffs. He moved to Montana Tech to mentor linebackers and serve as special teams coordinator. During his eight seasons, he helped the Oreiggers transform from winless in three seasons into conference champions and an NAIA playoff team in 1992.

Corless and his wife Stacey have three children, Anne, Caitlin and Joe.

JOVAN DEWITT

1ST SEASON
NORTHERN MICHIGAN, 1999

JOHN LOOSE
SAFETIES
1ST SEASON
ITHACA, 1997

Jovan Dewitt is in his first season as a member of the Army football coach staff.

Dewitt joins the Army staff with an array of experience, most recently at Florida Atlantic.

Last year, Florida Atlantic posted a four-game winning streak and ended the season 6-6 with victories over Southern Mississippi, South Florida, Tulane and New Mexico State among others. The Owls allowed just 161 passing yards per contest and 185 yards per game on the ground.

Among the bevy of players Dewitt mentored were Florida Atlantic lineman Cory Henry and linebacker Adarius Glanton, who both competed in the 2014 Medal of Honor Bowl last month, a collegiate all-star event. Henry is the program's all-time sack leader with 16 while Glanton recorded 75 tackles in his senior season.

Dewitt spent two seasons at Florida Atlantic, working with the linebackers each season. He assumed defensive coordinator responsibilities in 2013.

Florida Atlantic ranked second nationally in pass defense, 11 nationally in total defense in 2013 and fourth in pass efficiency defense, three of five categories the Owls were listed in the top-25.

Prior to Florida Atlantic, Dewitt served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Northern Iowa, where the Panthers qualified for the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs in two of his three seasons, advancing to the quarterfinals in 2011.

Northern Iowa was 24-11 during Dewitt's tenure and ranked as high as sixth nationally. He coached LJ Fort, a six-time All-America choice who earned multiple player of the year citations and Josh Mahony, a semifinalist for the Walt Byars award for academic and football excellent.

Dewitt spent three seasons at St. Norbert College as the defensive coordinator. He guided Breadan O'Mally to Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2006 and helped Jay Arndt collect the same accolade the next season. St. Norbert finished 27-5 during Dewitt's tenure and was consistently ranked in the top-25.

Dewitt began his coaching career at Northern Michigan, first as a student coach and later as a graduate assistant. He started with the defensive line and then worked with the running backs and as the academic coordinator.

He also coached at Fort Scott Community College and Fairmont State College.

Dewitt was a two-time All-America selection during a stellar playing career at Northern Michigan University. He was a two-time All-Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference selection and the Defensive Player of the Year in 1996.

He was invited to the New Orleans Saints camp after graduation and played for three years in the Arena Football League with the Iowa Barnstormers, the Orlando Predators and the Fargo Freeze.

Dewitt earned his bachelor's degree in physics and mathematics from Northern Michigan in 1999. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Maya and Jovan, Jr.

John Loose in his second stint with the Army football program and ninth season overall at West Point.

Loose, who spent the past 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Lafayette, coached the junior varsity team, linebackers, outside linebackers and secondary during his eight seasons along the banks of the Hudson.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top-25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs.

In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections while the 2010 squad boasted three all league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $1.7 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country.

Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest.

Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game.

The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories.

Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense prior to his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-American by five organizations. Blake Costanzo played linebacker the same season and just completed his eighth season in the NFL, most recently with the Chicago Bears.

Loose coached at Army for eight seasons under Bob Sutton. In 1996, Army ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense during a 10-2 campaign that included an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to his time at Army, Loose worked as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. Loose started his coaching career at the University of Albany in 1987.

Loose was a track and field star at Ithaca College where he was a five-time NCAA qualifier and All-America selection in the high jump. He holds the school record at 6-feet, 10 ¼ inches. He earned four letters in indoor and outdoor track and field prior to his graduation in 1987. He earned a degree in physical education with a minor in Psychology.

Loose and his wife, Marianne, have two daughters, Lauren and Grace.

Ray McCartney is in his first season with the Army football program.

McCartney joins the Army staff after spending 13 seasons at Wake Forest working for 2006 National Coach of the Year Jim Grobe. During that time frame, the Demon Deacons won more games (78) and made more bowl game appearances (five) than any other era in the history of the program. McCartney most recently served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator.

During McCartney's tenure in Winston-Salem, N.C., Wake Forest won the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 2006 and played in the BCS Orange Bowl in 2007.

A tireless and well-known recruiter, McCartney recruited or coached 17 players that went onto the NFL, including 12 defensive linemen. McCartney most recently coached three-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference nose tackle Nikita Whitlock who was a semifinalist for the Bednarick Award, presented to the best defensive player in college football and runner-up for the 2013 Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year Award.

Another athlete recruited and coached by McCartney is Calvin Pace, a stalwart for the New York Jets. He also recruited linebacker Stanley Arnoux who was a four-year starter and fourth-round draft choice of the New Orleans Saints. Arnoux was a member of the Saints' Super Bowl squad in 2009 after running the fastest time by a linebacker at the NFL Combine earlier that year.

In all, McCartney has had 12 of his defensive linemen compete in the NFL, including Pace, whom McCartney guided to All-American and ACC Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

While at Wake Forest, McCartney coached or recruited two first-team All-Americans, an ACC Player of the Year and two ACC Rookie of the Year winners. Ten of his defensive linemen claimed All-ACC honors.

McCartney also coached at Ohio University, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University and Wittenberg University.

McCartney earned a varsity letter in 1977 at Guilford College before an injury ended his playing career. He graduated in 1980 with a degree in physical education and earned a master's degree in teaching with an emphasis in sport management from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1985.

McCartney was raised in Pelham Manor, N.Y. He is married to Gwendolyn Torres-McCartney, a career entrepreneur and has a 16-year old stepson, Spencer Van Fleet, who competes in archery and other outdoor sports as well as golf.

Orlando Mitjans, Jr., is in his first season with the Army football program.

Mitjans spent the past four seasons at Georgia Southern University where he was charged with coaching the cornerbacks. A veteran mentor, Mitjans helped mold Laron Scott into a two-time All-America choice and All-Southern Conference selection. Scott was a free agent signee of the New Orleans Saints after concluding his career at Georgia Southern. He also helped Lavelle Westbrook to second team all-conference honors and an invitation to the Senior Bowl.

A member of the coaching staff that advanced to three consecutive national semifinals, Mitjans helped Georgia Southern rank second in the Football Championship Subdivision and 11th in the nation in 2010 in pass defense.

Prior to his tenure at Georgia Southern, Mitjans was the secondary coach at Tennessee State University, his second stop with the Tigers. In 2009, Tennessee State led the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense and was second in total defense. Among the players Mitjans mentored was Dominick Rodgers-Cromartie, a member of the Denver Broncos' secondary.

Mitjans spent one season at Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville, Tenn., as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach after spending spring ball as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Florida A&M University.

He served as secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky University where he helped produce an All-America selection and five all-conference players during his stop from March of 2006 to February of 2008, including Antwaun Molden, who participated in the Senior Bowl and was invited to the NFL Combine. In 2007, the secondary intercepted 24 passes and was the top-ranked pass defense in the conference. Three of the starters in the secondary were named all-conference, led by Derrick Huff, the league's defensive player of the year and a first-team All-America choice.

The assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Tennessee State in 2005, Mitjans helped the Tigers lead the conference in pass defense and total defense.

Before Tennessee State, Mitjans coached running backs and then the secondary at Towson University. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2004. Towson led the league with 21 interceptions in 2003, four of which were returned for touchdowns. Mitjans worked with both running back Jason Corle and safety Madieu Williams, both of whom competed in the Senior Bowl and were invited to the NFL Combine.

Mitjans was the secondary coach at Kent State University in 1994 and at C.W. Post University in 1996 before moving to Morgan State University to coach the secondary in 1997. At Morgan State, the defense forced 28 takeaways and five players were all-conference choices. A season later, he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

Mitjans began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Northeastern University and was hired full-time at Cheyney University where he was responsible for the secondary and special teams.

Selected to participate in the NFL's minority internship program, Mitjans had the opportunity to work with secondary coaches and players from NFL teams in Kansas City (2001), St. Louis (1999, 2000) and New York Jets (1994). In 2006, he was chosen as one of 20 coaches nationwide to attend the NCAA Expert Coaching Academy to prepare individuals for head coaching roles.

During his career, Mitjans has mentored eight players who have competed in the NFL.

A safety for coach Lou Holtz at Arkansas University from 1978-80, Mitjans transferred to Northeastern and played two seasons for the Huskies. He earned his degree in 1982 from Northeastern in leadership.

Mitjans and his wife, Claire, reside at West Point.

HAWAII, 1992

Sean Saturnio is in his first season as a member of the Army football coaching staff.

He came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line.

In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team.

Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities.

In 2012, Saturnio helped wide receiver/tight end Tyler Sumner collect honors on Phil Steels's 2012 All-Southern Conference squad.

A native of Hilo, Hawaii, Saturnio spent nine seasons as the head coach at Waipahu High School, culminating with a semifinal appearance in the Oahu Interscholastic Association (OIA) White Conference playoffs in 2011.

Saturnio was an assistant for two seasons before taking over as head coach at Waipahu where his team qualified for the playoffs in six of nine seasons. He was named the OIA Division I Coach of the Year for the Western Division in 2008 and OIA Division II Coach of the Year in 2004.

Saturnio began his collegiate playing career at Division III Beloit College in Wisconsin before transferring to Hawaii. He was a walk-on for the Warriors and earned a spot on the team as a wide receiver. He earned his degree in elementary education in 1992.

Saturnio and his wife, Sharon, were married in the fall. He has two children, Christina and Isaiah.

LAMONT SEWARD
RUNNING BACKS
1ST SEASON
WESTERN CAROLINA, 2003

Lamont Seward is in his first season with the Army football program.

He spent four seasons at Georgia Southern and was responsible for running backs and wide receivers before making the move to West Point and joining coach Jeff Monken's staff.

While Georgia Southern was not eligible for the postseason or listed among the NCAA leaders in 2013 due to its move to the Football Bowl Subdivision level and the Sun Belt conference, Seward helped the Eagles to three consecutive NCAA FCS semifinal appearances.

In 2013, Georgia Southern rushed for 3,964 yards. Fullback William Banks was third on the squad with 77 carries for 468 yards and six scores despite not playing in three games.

Under Seward's guidance, Georgia Southern posted its second highest per game rushing average (399.4) and ninth NCAA rushing title during his two seasons mentoring the running backs.

He guided wide receivers when he joined the Georgia Southern staff. Seward helped develop Georgia Southern into one of the nation's most efficient passing offenses, ranking second in the nation in 2011 in that category.

Prior to joining Monken at Georgia Southern, Seward spent two seasons at the wide receiver coach at West Georgia working with the wide receivers and kickoff and punt return teams.

Seward coached at Western Carolina, his alma mater, for two seasons helping Eddie Cohen earn the school's single-season record for reception yardage with 1,208. At Western Carolina, Seward was involved in the weekly offensive game plans and the kickoff and punt return squads.

Seward began his coaching career as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator at Warren County High School for two seasons before joining the Western Carolina staff.

A member of the Southern Conference All-Decade Team (1997-2006), Seward finished his career third on the Catamounts and SoCon list for receptions with 190. He collected 2,971 receiving yards which stands third all-time at WCU. Seward hauled in a pass in 39 consecutive games, recorded at least one reception in 43 of 45 games and posted 12 games with 100 receiving yards or more.

Seward earned his degree in sport management with a minor in marketing from Western Carolina in 2003.

He and his wife, Bebe, reside at West Point.

Todd Spencer is a veteran coach in the triple-option offensive system and will begin his second year at West Point.

During the 2013 season, Spencer mentored the offensive tackles and helped Army rack up 311.8 rushing yards per game. Army led the nation in rushing for the majority of the season and rushed for 34 touchdowns.

Spencer guided senior captain Michael Kime to first-team accolades on Phil Steele's 2013 Postseason All-Independent Team and the 2013 FBS All-Independent Team.

One of the foremost offensive line coaches in the nation, Spencer has spent the bulk of his coaching career working with the option.

Spencer will begin his 37th season in coaching, including 23 years as an offensive line coach at the Division I level.

Prior to coming to Army, Spencer spent four years at Georgia Tech. He was the co-offensive line coach and worked primarily with the tackles.

During his four seasons in Atlanta, his players earned six All-ACC certificates, including four first-team selections. The Yellow Jackets led the ACC in total offense in 2008 and 2009 while running the triple-option offense. The team led the nation in rushing for the first time in school history in 2010 after a runner-up showing in 2009.

Named one of the top five offensive line coaches in the nation by CBSSports.com in the summer of 2008, Spencer is well versed both in the option attack and service academy football. Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, he spent 11 seasons as the offensive line coach at Navy. The Mids won the Commander In Chief's Trophy and made postseason appearances in each of his last four seasons. Navy led the nation in rushing four times during his tenure in Annapolis, including three straight years from 2005-07. In addition to posting the top-ranked rushing offense, the 2003 squad set school records for total rushing yards (4,202), yards per attempt (5.5), rushing touchdowns (44), total offense (5,506), total offense per game (423.5) and yards per play (6.0).

Prior to his arrival at Navy, Spencer was the offensive line coach at Oregon State from 1991-96. The team finished second in the nation in rushing in 1993, averaging 300.6 yards per game.

Spencer also served one-year stints as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (1990) and UTEP (1989). He was the offensive coordinator at Southern Utah University in 1988 and held the same position at Trinity Valley Community College in 1986-87.

Spencer began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas Lutheran University working with wide receivers in 1979. He also served as a defensive graduate assistant at Linfield College for two seasons (1980-81). After a two-year run as a high school assistant in Texas, Spencer re-entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at Oregon where he worked with the defensive backs in 1984. In 1985, he held his first offensive line post, serving as the graduate assistant at the University of Texas.

Spencer played defensive back at Whitworth College and Pacific Lutheran University, earning bachelor's degree in physical education from the latter in 1979. A Beaverton, Ore., native, Spencer earned a master's degree from Linfield in 1981.

He is the father of two daughters, Whitney and Ashley.

Mitch Ware is in his first season as a member of the Army football program.

Ware came to West Point from Georgia Southern where he was assistant head coach in 2012, his eighth season on the Eagles' staff. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., Ware was responsible for coaching quarterbacks.

During the 2013 season, Ware mentored quarterback Jerick McKinnon to a tremendous season and an invitation to a showcase bowl event. McKinnon, despite playing in only 10 games, led the team in rushing attempts (161), rushing yards (1,050) and touchdowns (12). He averaged 105 yards per contest and 6.5 yards per carry and was invited to the prestigious Senior Bowl. He connected on 8-of-17 passes for 171 yards with four touchdowns and just one interception. McKinnon concluded his career third all-time on the Georgia Southern career rushing list with 3,899 yards. Backup quarterback Kevin Ellison was second on the squad with 127 rushing attempts for 886 yards. He completed 41-of-79 passes for 756 yards and two scores.

Ware helped Georgia Southern to three straight trips to the national semifinals and an upset win at Florida.

Ware served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 and helped Georgia Southern lead the FCS in rushing offense in all four seasons.

In his first season, Ware developed first-year starter Chaz Williams into an Associated Press All-America selection and finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. From his quarterback position, Williams ran for 1,422 yards and 27 touchdowns while being named conference player of the year. Fullback Jeremaine Austin, another first-year starter, rushed for 1,416 yards and was named conference rookie of the year.

The next season, Georgia Southern averaged 335.6 rushing yards per game and led the nation as Austin earned Player of the Year and All-America honors.

In 2004, Georgia Southern again led the country in rushing at 369.9 yards per contest and ranked third nationally in yards per game.

Prior to his work with Georgia Southern, Ware coached at Navy for four seasons. At Annapolis, Md., Ware guided Brian Madden who nearly rushed for and passed for 1,000 yards with 905 yards on the ground and 902 through the air.

Ware spent 16 seasons at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) where he was a player, assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ware was a four-year starter and co-captain as a quarterback at Southwest Missouri State. He helped the team to its last Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championship in 1978 and was named the league's most valuable player as a senior in 1979. He established seven school records during his playing days, was chosen as an Associated Press honorable mention All-America and received the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship.

After his playing career, Ware served as a graduate assistant for two seasons at his alma mater before moving into a full-time coaching role. He developed quarterback DeAndre Smith, the Gateway Football Conference's Offensive Player-of-the-Decade for 1985-94.

Ware earned his bachelor's and master's degree from Southwest Missouri State and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Ware and his wife Judy have three sons, Jacob, Joshua and Jackson.

TUCKER WAUGH
WIDE RECEIVERS
8TH SEASON
DEPAUW, 1993

Tucker Waugh recently completed his seventh season at Army in 2013 where he was responsible for the wide receivers and slotbacks. Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04 and then returned to West Point after guiding wide receivers at Stanford.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top running teams in each of the last four years. In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss who established an Army freshman record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss also led the team with an Army freshman record 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career and was part of the 2010 staff which led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

In 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 and ranks second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season rank third on the Army ledger.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999.

Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing attack as one of the most prolific in the nation. Illinois State advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and reached the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of DePauw University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English Composition and Physical Education, Waugh began his coaching career at Otterbein College in 1993 overseeing the Cardinals' quarterbacks. He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as a wide receivers coach. He also completed a coaching fellowship with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Waugh lettered at quarterback while playing at DePauw from 1990 to 1992 and was named the school's "Outstanding Physical Education Major."

Waugh resides at West Point with his wife, Jen, and sons, Jackson and Nicholas.

The Army football team has added three strength coaches. Tim Caron, Will Greenberg and Darren Mustin will work primarily with the Black Knights' football program as will Director of Strength & Conditioning Scott Swanson and Chris Clyde.

Caron will serve as head football strength and conditioning and comes to West Point following three years at the University of Southern California. At USC, Caron was the associate strength and conditioning coach and worked with the football team on nutrition, injury and rehabilitation protocol, preparing players for the NFL Combine and oversaw the intern staff.

Prior to USC, Caron spent three years at Georgia Tech as an assistant strength coach working with the football program, specifically in regards to weight management and shoulder rehabilitation. He also worked with women's basketball.

Caron served a bevy of internships, first with Velocity Sports Performance and later with Harvard University, Georgia Tech and the University of Mississippi before securing a role at Springfield College with the football, men's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's volleyball and women's sprinting and jumping programs.

Caron earned his bachelor's degree in Movement Science and Mathematics from Westfield State College. He secured a master's of science in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from California University of Pennsylvania and master's of exercise science in Strength and Conditioning from Springfield College.

Greenberg makes the move to West Point after two years as the Director of Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning at Appalachian State University. There, he designed and implemented all programs for the men's basketball program as well as managing the weight room, staff, budgets and nutrition.

Prior to his work at Appalachian State, Greenberg was an assistant strength coach at the University of Florida, working with the basketball program as well as the nationally ranked golf and tennis squads.

Greenberg also worked with Clemson University men's and women's basketball and at Elite Athlete Training Services. He began his career as an intern at the University of Maryland.

A 2010 graduate of the University of Maryland, Greenberg earned his degree in Kinesiology as a three-year starter on the baseball team. He is pursuing his master's in Youth Development Leadership from Clemson.

Mustin, who earned a scholarship after "walking on" to the Alabama football team, joins Army after working as an assistant at the University of Southern California. At USC, he was a member of the football strength staff while overseeing the needs of the men's tennis program.

Before working at USC, Mustin was at D1 Sports Training, serving as the head strength coach for the NFL Combine, Head Strength and Speed Coach and Facility Coordinator.

Mustin spent two years at Dartmouth College, overseeing the football program, several Olympic sports and the rugby program. He also assisted in improving the athlete movements and injury prevention of all 33 varsity athletic teams.

He began his collegiate career at Middle Tennessee State as a scholarship football player before transferring to Alabama. He served as the Crimson Tide's co-captain during his senior season and was presented with the "Most Inspirational Award" in 2007. He earned his bachelor's degree in Human Environmental Studies.

Clyde is in his second year at Army after working at Princeton University and the University of Delaware. He earned his master's degree in Exercise Science from the University of Delaware

Swanson has served as Army's Director of Strength and Conditioning program since 1998 and oversees Army's 25 NCAA sports.
