- The winningest program in Illinois and in the Mid-American Conference over the last decade, the Northern Illinois University Huskies have won two Mid-American Conference championships, and four straight MAC West titles in the last four seasons alone, and in 2013 made a MAC record sixth-straight bowl appearance.
- The Huskies return 16 starters for 2014 - nine on offense, six on defense and one specialist.

- NIU enters 2014 with a nation-leading 26-game winning streak in their home stadium and have not lost in Huskie Stadium since Sept. 27, 2009.
- The Huskies also lead the country with 15 consecutive road victories in games played in its opponents' home stadium, including wins at Army, Purdue and Iowa.
- The Huskies' 46 wins over the last four years ranks second among all FBS teams behind only Oregon and ahead of Boise State (45), LSU (44) and Oklahoma (43).
- NIU head coach Rod Carey is 12-3 since taking over prior to the Huskies' appearance in the 2013 Orange Bowl.
- NIU spent 11 weeks in the Top 25 in at least one poll in 2013, a school record and was in the BCS standings each week during the regular season.
- The 2013 Huskies posted the school's first undefeated regular season as a major college program behind Heisman Trophy finalist Jordan Lynch and All-American safety Jimmie Ward.
- The Huskies have won 24 of their last 27 games and are 46-10 since 2010
- NIU broke nine school offensive records in 2013, including points per game, yards, yards per game, rushing yards and first downs and the Huskies' 655 rushing attempts were the most by a Huskie team since 1989.
- NIU also broke the MAC records for total yards, rushing yards and rushing first downs in a season a year ago.
- Jimmie Ward became the second NIU player to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft when the San Francisco 49ers made him the 30th pick overall. Defensive lineman Ken Bishop joined him on the all-time draftees list when he was taken in the seventh round by the Dallas Cowboys, marking the first time since 2007 that two Huskies were chosen in the same draft.
- Currently, 10 former Huskies are in NFL camps including three (veteran OL Doug Free, Bishop and free agent LB Joe Windsor) with the Dallas Cowboys. In addition

RUSHING POWERHOUSE

A year ago, Huskie tailback Cameron Stingily joined the NIU 1,000-yard rushing club for the first time, while he and Jordan Lynch became the first Huskie duo to rush for 1,000 yards or more in the same season. Their total of 3,039 yards in 2013 ranks as the second-highest combined total in NCAA FBS history. NIU has had a player rush for 1,000 yards or more 14 times in the last 15 seasons.

HUSKIE COACHING STAFF

ROD CAREY

Head Coach | Second Season
Indiana (1993) | Fourth Season at NIU

Over a four-month period in the fall of 2012, Rod Carey went from coordinating the run game and coaching the offensive line of the NIU Huskies, to offensive coordinator of one of the most explosive offenses in the country, to head coach of the first Mid-American Conference team to play in a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) bowl game.

Carey's promotion to head coach of Northern Illinois University's football team was announced on December 2, 2012, just minutes before NIU learned that the team had earned a historic bid to face Florida State in the 2013 Discover Orange Bowl.

After two fourth-quarter touchdowns by the Seminoles turned a 17-10 game into a 31-10 final score in that game, Carey returned to DeKalb where he and his newly-built staff went to work, determined to capitalize on the momentum of the Orange Bowl appearance and the Huskies' second straight MAC Championship.

That hard work paid off in 2013 as Carey led NIU to an undefeated regular season that included two wins over Big Ten Conference teams – a 30-27 last-minute win over Iowa in the season opener and a 55-24 blowout victory at Purdue. Behind All-Americans Jordan Lynch and Jimmie Ward, the Huskies spent 12 weeks in the Top 25 rankings and coasted through the league slate to win the MAC West title and advance to the MAC Championship game for the fourth straight year.

Carey became the third NIU mentor to be named the MAC Coach of the Year, following in the footsteps of greats Bill Mallory (1983) and Joe Novak (2002), and was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Football Club Coach of the Year Award. He is the first league coach to win two games over Big Ten Conference opponents in one season.

Prolific offensive production, leading to four consecutive 11-plus win seasons, has been a hallmark of Carey's four seasons in DeKalb.

Rod Carey became the first NIU head coach to lead the Huskies to wins over two Big Ten teams in the same season en route to earning 2013 MAC Coach of the Year honors.

^ – Named NIU's 22nd head football coach Dec. 2, 2012
* – Assumed offensive coordinator duties Sept. 2, 2012

In his first season at NIU, he coached a pair of All-American offensive lineman as center Scott Wedige and left tackle Trevor Olson were named All-Americans by CBSSports.com and Phil Steele's magazine, respectively. Three Huskies, including first-team selections Jimmie Ward and Jordan Lynch, earned All-America honors a year ago, while Lynch's historic career was capped by a third-place finish in the Heisman Trophy voting and a trip to New York for the Heisman festivities. Huskies have won the Vern Smith Award, presented annually to the MAC MVP, every year under Carey.

A fiery competitor who despises losing, Carey immediately connected with last year's Huskie team, thanks in part to his familiarity with the program, and especially the offense. His connection to NIU goes through Mallory as the former Huskie mentor was Carey's collegiate coach at the University of Indiana. Given that, he brought a healthy respect for NIU's history of success when he arrived, and he has worked to foster appreciation for the NIU tradition among the current Huskies and has made a special effort to connect with the football alumni.

In addition, he has continued to prioritize academic success and the development of each individual by providing community service opportunities and bringing in guest speakers to address issues from leadership to social media usage to life after football and beyond.

Carey joined the Huskies after three seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of North Dakota. His line paved the way for UND 1,000-yard rusher Josh Murray (1,146 yards) in 2008 and for the No. 2 running back in the Great West Conference a year later. The Fighting Sioux also passed for 2,000 yards in 2009. Five of Carey's offensive linemen earned GWC all-conference honors in his last three seasons.

Prior to going to North Dakota, Carey spent the 2007 season as the offensive line coach at Illinois State. His Redbird offensive line featured three players that received professional football opportunities.

From 2000-06, Carey served on the coaching staff at the University of Wisconsin-Stout, where he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. His offensive units averaged nearly 400 yards per game during his seven seasons and set 14 records, including the all-time conference rushing record. He coached Blue Devils' offensive lineman Ben Knepper, one of the most decorated players ever at UW-Stout, to multiple All-American and all-conference honors. In all, Carey coached 26 all-conference selections and seven All-Americans during his time at UW-Stout.

Carey began his collegiate coaching career at the University of Minnesota (1998-99) where he helped the Gophers to their first bowl game in over a decade with a trip to the 1999 Sun Bowl. Prior to UM, he spent four seasons in the high school ranks at his alma mater, Wayzata (Minn.) High School, from 1994-97.

A three-year starter at center for Indiana during his collegiate playing days, Carey served as a team captain and won IU's Corby Davis Outstanding Offensive Player Award as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana in 1994.

Mallory was happy to see one of his former players take the reigns of the Huskie program.

"I had the greatest respect for Rod as a player," Mallory said. "He had everything you want to see in a person and in a coach.

"He is a quality person, a great character individual, a good people person and a caring individual, the qualities you like to see in a person and in a coach. He is very focused, he is a competitor, he knows his football and has an excellent coaching background. He understands Northern and I think he will do an excellent job."

Carey and his wife Tonya have two children, daughter Kennedi (10) and son Charlie (7).

BOB COLE

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks | Fourth Season at NIU
Widener (1982)

An experienced offensive coach who has served as offensive coordinator at six different universities, Bob Cole begins his second season calling the plays for the Huskies as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in his fourth season with NIU overall.

After working with the wide receivers in his first year at NIU, Cole returned to lead the position group he has worked with the most over the years, tutoring the Huskie quarterbacks in 2012.

Under his tutelage, quarterback Jordan Lynch, who finished seventh in the 2012 Heisman voting, turned in a record-setting season last year, becoming the first NCAA player to pass for 3,000 yards and rush for 1,500 yards. The 2012 Mid-American Conference MVP tallied 353.8 yards of total offense and led the nation with 12 rushing touchdowns.

Lynch took his play to a new level in his second season working with Cole en route to finishing third in the 2013 Heisman Trophy voting to set a Mid-American Conference record. Lynch, who was named a first team All-American and was a finalist for multiple awards, passed for 2,892 yards and rushing for 1,920 while breaking NCAA, league and school records. The Huskie offense set three MAC and nine school records in 2013.

Cole has helped guide one of the most productive offenses in NIU history. Under Cole's guidance in 2011, the Huskies developed one of the most consistent and deep receiving corps in NIU history, contributing to a record-setting offensive season and the 2011 Mid-American Conference Championship.

Cole is a 25-year collegiate coaching veteran who has made stops at seven colleges and two high schools in his career. Prior to spending the 2009 campaign at Western Kentucky where he served as quarterbacks coach, Cole was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Wyoming in 2008. He went to Wyoming after three seasons (2005-07) in the same role at Florida A&M University, where Rattlers' quarterback Albert Chester led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in passing and total offense in 2006.

A native of Whitehall, Pa., Cole led a successful offense as coordinator at Utah State from 2000-04. Under his direction, the 2002 Aggies ranked seventh in the nation in passing offense. The previous year, Cole's USU offense ranked 13th in the NCAA in passing and receiver Kevin Curtis, who led the nation in receptions (9.09/game) and was third in receiving yards.

As offensive coordinator at Montana in 1999, the Grizzlies reached the NCAA I-AA (now FCS) playoffs and Cole's offense ranked second in total offense (517.4 yards per game), scoring offense (46.4 points per game) and passing offense (370.0 yards per game). Quarterback Drew Miller led the nation in passing efficiency with a quarterback rating of 168.6, marking the second consecutive season that Cole coached the nation's passing efficiency leader. Miller also ranked second in the nation with an average of 346.1 passing yards per game.

Cole spent six seasons (1993-98) at Portland State as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. During his tenure, PSU ranked in

JAY NIEMANN

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties | Fourth Season at NIU
Iowa State (1983)

Veteran defensive coordinator Jay Niemann returns for his fourth season running the Northern Illinois University defense and coaching the safeties.

In 2012, the NIU defense held five opponents to nine points or less en route to a second straight Mid-American Conference title and a berth in the 2013 Orange Bowl. The Huskie defensive unit totaled 40 sacks in 2012, second all-time in NIU history.

Niemann's top pupil at safety, Jimmie Ward, wrapped up a stellar career at NIU when he was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the 2014 NFL Draft. The 30th overall pick, Ward led the Huskie in tackles in each of the last two years, recording 95 tackles and a career-high seven interceptions in 2013 and 104 stops with three interceptions in 2012.

In all, Niemann's defense has produced seven players who signed with NFL teams in the last three years. In addition to Ward, and Rashaan Melvin, Alan Baxter, Sean Progar, Ken Bishop, Joe Windsor and Pat Schiller have signed with NFL teams since 2011.

In his first season in DeKalb, Niemann took over a young Huskie defense and watched it mature as the 2011 campaign progressed. By week six, the Huskies turned in their best defensive game of the season statistically and in the 2011 MAC Championship game, the NIU defense flipped the script on Ohio in the second half, en route to a 23-20 win and the school's first MAC football title in 28 years.

Niemann came to NIU after spending three seasons as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Hardin-Simmons University in Texas. During his tenure with the Cowboys, Niemann helped turn a defense that ranked last in the nation prior to his arrival into the No. 2 unit in the American Southwest Conference in 2009. He coached free safety Matt Warnish to All-American honors in 2008 and saw three of his defensive backs earn all-conference accolades from 2009-10.

A native of Avoca, Iowa, Niemann spent much of his 26-year coaching career in his home state, with stops at Simpson (Iowa) College, the University of Northern Iowa and Drake University. Niemann compiled a 32-29 record in his six seasons as head coach at Simpson (2002-07). He led the Storm to the 2003 NCAA playoffs while also serving as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Niemann coached the secondary coach (1997, 2001), linebackers (1998-99) and filled the role of defensive coordinator (1999-2000) during his five seasons at Northern Iowa (1997-2001). The Panthers advanced to the semifinals of the 2001 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (then Division I-AA) playoffs. One of Niemann's UNI pupils, cornerback Ty Talton, went on to play in the NFL.

Prior to his arrival at UNI, Niemann spent eight seasons at Drake. After serving as the defensive backs coach from 1989-94, he was promoted to defensive coordinator/assistant head coach in 1995. In his final three seasons, the Bulldog defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and total defense.

A former quarterback for the Huskies, Harmon returned to NIU as a graduate assistant coach on Joe Novak's staff in 2004 and 2005, where he worked with the Huskie offense. NIU posted a 9-3 record and won the Silicon Valley Bowl in 2004 and played in the MAC Championship game to complete a 7-5 campaign in 2005.

Harmon's affiliation with NIU dates back to his playing days as a quarterback for the Huskies from 1998-2000. 2013 SEASON REVIEW

NIU 30, IOWA 27

Aug. 31 | 2:30 p.m. (CT) | BTN
Iowa City, Iowa | Kinnick Stadium | 67,402

IOWA CITY, Iowa – Northern Illinois kicker Mathew Sims made a 36-yard field goal with four seconds on the clock to give the Huskies a 30-27 season-opening win over the Iowa Hawkeyes at Kinnick Stadium.

The kick gave NIU its first win over the Hawkeyes in nine tries, and it came in comeback fashion as Northern Illinois trailed throughout much of the second half, and faced a 27-20 deficit to start the fourth quarter.

Sims' field goal came after safety Jimmie Ward intercepted Iowa quarterback Jake Rudock on the 50-yard line with 1:24 to play and the game tied 27-27. Ward, who was playing with a cast on his left hand, returned the ball to the 30-yard line. From there, two runs took the ball to the 19 and after a timeout, Sims was true on his third field goal of the game.

The NIU defense gave up just 156 yards in the second half. Iowa scored only a 44-yard field goal by Mike Meyer, which gave UI a 27-20 lead with 6:42 to play.

NIU quarterback Jordan Lynch, bottled up on the ground all day, went to the air. He engineered a six-play, 75-yard drive that took just 1:37, hitting Angelo Sebastiano for 27 yards to start the drive. After three completions to the Iowa 33, Lynch found Da'Ron Brown in the corner of the end zone. With 5:05 to play, the game was tied 27-27. Brown caught five passes for 92 yards to lead NIU, while Sebastiano added five catches for 69 yards and Tommylee Lewis had five grabs for 82 yards.

Iowa got the ball back and advanced to the Huskie 48-yard line, but was forced to punt and after NIU went three and out from its 18-yard line and punted, Ward's heroics gave the Huskies another chance.

Northern Illinois scored the first 10 points of the game. Sims opened the scoring with a 47-yard field goal at 7:33 in the first quarter, and Lynch hit Lewis with a 40-yard score.

Iowa scored a defensive touchdown as Christian Kirksey picked up a Huskie fumble and brought it back 52 yards, cutting NIU's lead to 10-7 at the end of the first quarter.

Iowa put 17 points on the board in the second quarter, beginning with a 28-yard field goal by Meyer. After NIU was forced to punt, the Hawkeyes used a 53-yard pass on a flea-flicker from Rudock to Jordan Cotton to the NIU 12. Rudock hit tight end C.J. Fiedorowicz from 11 yards out for Iowa's first lead, 17-10.

The Huskies tied it at on their next drive when Lynch hit Lewis from 21 yards out, but Iowa responded again and went into halftime with a 24-17 lead.

After surrendering 279 yards and 28 points to the Vandals in the first half, NIU allowed Idaho just one second-half touchdown and 159 yards. On five Idaho possessions in the fourth quarter, the Vandals tallied just 53 yards. Seven NIU defenders recorded sacks on the day.

Idaho took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead, while Northern Illinois came up empty on its first drive. A turnover gave NIU the ball at the Idaho 35. Lynch ran for 30 yards on the first snap, then scored on a five-yard run to tie the score at seven.

Following an exchange of punts, Idaho quarterback Chad Chalich hit Richard Montgomery on a 27-yard pass play to give the Vandals a 14-7 lead with 3:45 to play in the first quarter. Idaho took a 21-7 lead early in the second quarter when Chalich hit Baker from 37 yards out. Facing third-and-11, Lynch found tight end Luke Eakes for 21 yards and a first down, allowing NIU to take a knee and claim their 22nd consecutive victory at Huskie Stadium.

Behind the precision passing of Lynch, Northern Illinois scored on its first five possessions of the game. Kicker Mathew Sims earned the first NIU points of the game with a 44-yard field goal, before Lynch hit Da'Ron Brown from 15 yards out for the first of Brown's two TDs. Sims made it 13-7 with 13:39 to play in the second quarter and after the NIU defense forced Purdue into a three-and-out, Lynch hit Juwan Brescacin for 41 yards to the Boilermaker 26-yard line. Five plays later, the duo hooked up for a four-yard touchdown and a 20-7 NIU lead.

Dechane Durante made the first of his two interceptions on the day and re-turned the ball 50 yards to the Purdue 29. From there, Lynch hit Brown from 17 yards out for the 27-7 Huskie lead. Durante ended the Boilermakers' next drive as well, intercepting quarterback Rob Henry in the end zone.

Purdue got a 47-yard field goal before halftime to cut the Huskies lead to 27-10, but Lewis quickly quashed any Purdue comeback hopes as he took the opening kickoff back 99 yards for a score, his fourth career kickoff return touchdown.

The teams traded punts before Jimmie Ward scored on a 62-yard interception return for a 41-10 NIU lead. Ward also led the Huskies with nine tackles.

Purdue scored on its next possession when new quarterback Danny Etling hit Cameron Posey from 16 yards out to complete an eight-play, 75-yard drive. The Huskies then used tailbacks Cameron Stingily and Keith Harris, Jr. to ground out an 11-play, 67-yard drive that consumed 4:27 on the clock. Lynch went the final seven yards for the score and a 48-17 Huskie lead.

Back-up quarterback Matt McIntosh led a 47-yard touchdown drive and hit tight end Tim Semisch from 18 yards out for NIU's final points of the game.

GAME 5 NIU 38, KENT STATE 24

Oct. 5 | 2:30 p.m. (CT) | TWS/ESPN3
Kent, Ohio | Dix Stadium | 18,773

KENT, Ohio – Junior Cameron Stingily ran for 266 yards on 37 carries and the NIU Huskies totaled 698 yards of total offense, 454 on the ground, to claim a 38-24 victory over Kent State in its 2013 Mid-American Conference opener.

On a rainy afternoon, Stingily punished the Golden Flashes, often dragging two and three defenders as he compiled the most yards by a Huskie running back since Garrett Wolfe's NIU school-record 353 yards versus Ball State in 2006.

NIU piled up 698 yards of total offense, the third-highest total in school history. The Huskies' 454 rushing yards were the eighth-most all-time. In addition to Stingily, quarterback Jordan Lynch had 94 yards on 14 carries, while James Spencer gained 42 yards on six rushes.

After falling behind when Kent State quarterback Colin Reardon hit Tyshon Goode with a 28-yard pass to put the Flashes ahead 28-24 in the third quarter, the Huskies outscored KSU 17-0 the rest of the half.

Lynch directed a 10-play, 84-yard drive that took 4:05 off the clock with all but 11 yards coming on the ground. The Huskies took the lead for good on a 22-yard run by Spencer, who relieved an injured Keith Harris in the second quarter.

The Huskie defense forced Kent State to punt. Starting from its six-yard line, Stingily, Lynch and Spencer marched the Huskies downfield. Lynch hit Tommylee Lewis, who led the Huskies with eight catches, for 13 yards on third and 12 to the Kent State six. NIU also overcame a holding penalty from the one before Lynch hit Spencer with a screen pass for the touchdown and an 11-point lead, 35-24.

Kicker Mathew Sims put the final points on the board with a 31-yard field goal with 7:28 to play to cap a 10-play, 56-yard drive.

Kent State had one more shot and advanced to the NIU 12-yard line. Four passes went incomplete and the Huskie offense took over with 4:17 to play and collected three more first downs rushing to all but run out the clock.

A driving rainstorm limited the scoring early as neither team generated offense in the first quarter. NIU took a 7-0 lead on a Stingily 17-yard run, but Kent State's Dri Archer provided an immediate answer, taking the kickoff back 100 yards for a touchdown and a 7-7 tie.

Lynch hit Da'Ron Brown on a 53-yard completion midway through the second quarter to give NIU a 14-7 lead, but KSU answered as Reardon completed a 66-yard touchdown pass to Archer.

NIU went to the ground game to take a 21-14 lead with Stingily scoring from the one. Kent State earned a field goal to cut the lead to 21-17 at halftime.

GAME 6 NIU 27, AKRON 20

Oct. 12 | 4 p.m. (CT) | ESPN3
DeKalb, Illinois | Huskie Stadium | 23,595

DEKALB, Ill. -- The 23rd-ranked NIU Huskies earned their 23rd consecutive Huskie Stadium victory, defeating Akron 27-20 before a Homecoming, sellout crowd of 23,595. The win set a new MAC record for consecutive home victories, breaking a tie with Marshall (1997-2000).

The Huskies held Akron to just six points after the first quarter and 372 total yards in the game. The NIU defense combined for nine pass breakups and stopped the Zips twice in the last four minutes to preserve NIU's seven-point lead and secure the team's sixth straight win.

Akron struck first with a nine-play, 71-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Kyle Pohl connected with Mykel Traylor-Benn for 34 yards and Jawon Chisholm finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

It took NIU less than a minute to answer, going 74 yards in six plays and 59 seconds. The big play of the drive was a 25-yard Lynch to Juwan Brescain connection. Lynch capped the NIU drive with an 18-yard touchdown run.

Following a three-and-out by Akron, NIU took its first lead of the day on a 42-yard field goal by Tyler Wedel capping an eight-play, 41-yard drive.

NIU increased its lead to 10 with 4:52 left in the first quarter on a 25-yard pass from Lynch to Desroy Maxwell.

A pair of long pass receptions pulled Akron back within three, 17-14. Pohl connected with Jerrod Dillard on the opening play of the drive for 42 yards, then L.T. Smith for 21 yards to the Huskie two. Chisholm dove over the pile for his second score of the game.

Defense dominated the second quarter as the Huskies and Zips combined for just 132 yards and seven punts. Neither team scored in the second quarter, and the Huskies took a 17-14 lead into the locker room.

On its first possession of the second half, NIU's Tommylee Lewis went 16 yards on an end around, followed by a 40-yard Lynch to Lewis connection to move the Huskies into Zips territory. Three plays later, Stingily finished the drive with a nine-yard touchdown run to give NIU a 24-14 lead.

Quarterback Jordan Lynch was 16-of-35 passing for 220 yards and a touchdown and had 15 carries for 83 yards and a score for NIU. Stingily ran 21 times for 80 yards and a touchdown while Lewis finished with six catches for 58 yards.

Leading by 10 early in the fourth quarter, safety Jimmie Ward came up with the only turnover of the game, intercepting a Pohl pass at the Akron 30-yard line.

The Huskies drove to the Akron three, but were forced to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Wedel to take a 27-14 lead with 11:19 to play in the fourth quarter.

With 5:27 left, Akron cashed in an 18-play, 75-yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Pohl to Tyrell Goodman. The extra point was blocked and the Zips trimmed the Huskie lead to seven, 27-20.

Oct. 19 | 2 p.m. (CT) | ESPN3

Mt. Pleasant, Mich. | Kelly/Shorts Stadium | 18,796

MT. PLEASANT, Mich. – Northern Illinois' Jordan Lynch set the NCAA FBS record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 316 yards on 32 carries to lead the No. 23 Huskies to a 38-17 win over Central Michigan at Kelly/Shorts Stadium.

The game was tied 14-14 at halftime, but the Huskie defense held the Chippewas to three points and 97 yards in the second half while Lynch ran wild, compiling 232 yards on 18 carries after halftime. Lynch scored three rushing touchdowns and passed for another. He threw for 155 yards on 20-of-30 passing to tally 471 yards of total offense in the game.

After the teams played to a 14-14 tie in the first half, the Huskies dominated the second half on both sides of the ball. CMU totaled just 75 rushing yards on the day and their 346 yards of total offense was the lowest total by a Huskie opponent. NIU forced a pair of turnovers with cornerback Jhony Faustin picking off a pass and recovering a fumble forced by Dechane Durante.

CMU got on the board first when quarterback Cooper Rush hit Titus Davis from nine yards out to complete a four-play, 60-yard drive, giving Central Michigan a 7-0 lead with 6:05 to play in the first quarter.

NIU responded with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that consumed 4:00. Lynch connected with Juwan Brescacin on completions of 12 and 25 yards to the nine. From there, Lynch hit Tommylee Lewis on a receiver screen for the score. Lewis caught a career-high 10 passes and had 54 receiving yards and 28 rushing.

CMU took a 14-7 lead before the end of the first quarter when Rush connected with Andrew Flory on a 36-yard touchdown play.

Over the final three quarters, the Huskies outscored CMU 31-3. After Central Michigan stopped the Huskies on fourth-and-one from the CMU15, Faustin's interception two plays later put NIU on the Chippewas' 26-yard line. Lynch scored on a five-yard run and Tyler Wedel's extra point tied the score at 14.

With the Chippewas driving, Rush hit Jerry Harris for 13 yards to the NIU 20 on fourth down, but Durante forced a fumble which Faustin recovered.

Northern Illinois took the lead for the first time on its first possession of the second half with a nine-play, 63-yard drive culminating in a 34-yard field goal by Wedel. The Huskies extended the lead to 24-14 on its next possession, driving 85 yards in 11 plays and 4:26. Lynch scored from one yard out for a 10-point NIU lead with 3:22 left in the third quarter.

GAME 9 NIU 63, MASSACHUSETTS 19

Nov. 2 | 11 a.m. (CT) | ESPN Regional/3/GamePlan
Foxborough, Mass. | Gillette Stadium | 10,061

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. – Quarterback Jordan Lynch scored three rushing touchdowns in the first quarter and the No. 17 (BCS) Northern Illinois University Huskies scored touchdowns on its first five possessions en route to a 63-19 victory over the University of Massachusetts Saturday at Gillette Stadium.

NIU kept its perfect (9-0) record intact and improved to 5-0 versus Mid-American Conference foes. NIU also improved to 6-0 on the road and have won more road games than any other FBS team in the country.

Lynch, who watched most of the second half from the sideline after scoring his fourth rushing touchdown of the game on an 11-yard run with 10:21 to play in the third quarter, accounted for five scores on the day, including a career-high four rushing touchdowns. He scored on runs of six, 25 and 19 yards in the first quarter as the Huskies jumped out to a 21-6 lead.

Lynch carried the ball 17 times for 119 yards to record his 18th career 100-yard rushing game. Through the air, he completed 10-of-13 passes for 160 yards and threw a season-long 66-yard touchdown pass to Juwan Brescacin that increased the NIU lead to 35-13 with 9:33 to play in the second quarter.

Cameron Stingily added a six-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter and Tommylee Lewis scored on a 15-yard run as NIU totaled seven rushing scores and 354 rushing yards. Stingily's touchdown run was set up by an interception by defensive tackle Ken Bishop, who stepped in front of a screen pass at the UMass 20 and ran 14 yards to the six-yard line.

The Huskie defense allowed UMass to score just one touchdown – on a one-yard run by Lorenzo Woodley in the second quarter. Minutemen kicker Brendon Levengood made four field goals of 40 yards or longer.

NIU had a field goal blocked and twice turned the ball over on fumbles in the third quarter, but got back on track in the final period as back-up quarterback Drew Hare led the Huskies to a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Hare connected with true freshman running back Chad Beebe on an 81-yard pass play, the longest pass play by a Huskie quarterback since August 30, 2008 when Chandler Harnish completed a 91-yard pass to Nathan Palmer versus Minnesota. The long TD pass made the score 56-19 with 9:02 to play.

Hare completed the scoring with a 47-yard touchdown run with 5:31 left in the game.

GAME 10 NIU 48, BALL STATE 27

Nov. 13 | 7 p.m. (CT) | ESPN2
DeKalb, Illinois | Huskie Stadium | 18,290

DEKALB, Ill. – With the Mid-American Conference "Game of the Year" between NIU and Ball State tied at 27 with less than six minutes to play, the NIU Huskies, behind quarterback Jordan Lynch, scored 21 points to defeat Ball State, 48-27, on Wednesday night. Lynch completed 26-of-32 passes for 345 yards and two touchdowns while also rushing for 123 yards on 20 carries with two scores as the No. 15 Huskies remained perfect at 10-0 on the season, 6-0 in conference play.

The Huskies broke the 27-27 tie with a seven-play, 94-yard drive. Starting on its own six, a 24-yard rush by Lynch gave the Huskies room to work. Later in the drive, Lynch eluded the Ball State rush before finding Matt Williams downfield for 25 yards. Two plays later, Lynch dropped a perfect spiral to Da'Ron Brown in the end zone for 36 yards and a 34-27 NIU lead with 5:49 to play.

Brown finished the game with eight catches for a career-best 209 yards and a pair of touchdowns while fellow junior Tommylee Lewis finished with a team-high 12 catches for 71 yards.

The Huskie defense, which held Ball State to three points in the second half, stopped BSU running back Jahwan Edwards on fourth and one at the NIU 44-yard line; Jimmie Ward and Joe Windsor combined on the tackle.

Getting the ball back with 3:47 to play, the Huskies used four running plays to reach the Ball State 25. Two plays later, NIU found the end zone on a 16-yard rush by Lynch, giving the Huskies a 41-27 lead with 1:26 left. NIU put the game on ice 40 seconds later as Windsor intercepted a Keith Wenning pass and returned it 49 yards for another Huskie score.

NIU opened the scoring with a 34-yard field goal by Mathew Sims, but the Cardinals answered with a 12-play, 72-yard drive, capped by a Wenning to Willie Snead three-yard touchdown pass. The Huskies responded with a 78-yard drive as Lynch put NIU back on top with a two-yard touchdown run.

Edwards, who finished the game with 156 yards on 29 carries, ran six times for 51 yards on the ensuing drive to help the Cardinals retake the lead, 14-10, with 10:08 to play in the half. Wenning capped the drive with a quarterback sneak from a yard out as the Cardinals regained a four-point edge.

In the last five minutes of the first half, the teams combined to score 20 points. NIU got a 20-yard field goal from Sims to cap an 11-play, 43-yard drive that took 5:08, before Ball State scored on a five-yard run by Edwards. The Huskies answered one play later with Lynch hitting Brown, who split a pair of tacklers and ran 58 yards to the end zone with 1:13 left in the half. BSU added a 43-yard field goal by Scott Secor 48 seconds later to take a 24-20 lead into halftime.

GAME 11 NIU 35, TOLEDO 17

Nov. 20 | 7 p.m. (CT) | ESPN2
Toledo, Ohio | Glass Bowl | 21,974

TOLEDO, Ohio – Jordan Lynch ran for 161 yards on 28 carries and scored three second-half rushing touchdowns, and threw for 202 yards on 17-of-22 passing to lead No. 16 Northern Illinois to a 35-17 victory over Toledo Wednesday night at the Glass Bowl in Toledo. With the win, NIU improved its record to 11-0 for the first time in school history. The Huskies clinched the MAC West Division title and its fourth consecutive appearance in the Marathon MAC Championship game.

Lynch gained 131 yards on 15 carries in the second half and scored on touchdown runs of 12, 31 and one yards. His final touchdown run came with 9:38 to play and capped a 15-play, 99-yard drive that consumed 5:18 on the clock. Lynch ran for 62 yards on the drive, which put the Huskies ahead 28-17.

On the first possession of the second half, NIU drove 85 yards in six plays and 6:33 to take a 14-10 lead. Lynch hit Juwan Brescacin on completions of 11 and 32 yards, and Jacob Brinlee added a 27-yard catch. With starting receivers Tom-mylee Lewis and Da’Ron Brown sidelined by injuries, Brescacin caught a career best eight passes for 121 yards in the game.

In the second half, the NIU rushing game won the day, as the Huskies ran for 268 of their 364 rushing yards after halftime. In addition to Lynch’s yards, Cameron Stingily had 146 yards on 18 carries and Ohio native James Spencer added 32 yards and two rushing scores. He scored the Huskies’ first and last touchdowns including a one-yard run that iced the game for NIU with 5:39 to play.

After Toledo took a 17-14 lead on a 36-yard pass from QB Terrance Owens to Bernard Reedy with 8:34 to play in the third quarter, NIU responded with a six-play, 65-yard drive capped by a Lynch 31-yard run for a 21-17 Huskie lead.

The Huskies went into halftime trailing 10-7 after Owens hit Alonzo Russell with a 45-yard touchdown pass with 51 seconds left in the half.

NIU forced three turnovers in the first half on interceptions by Jimmie Ward and Boomer Mays and a forced fumble by George Rainey, but scored just seven points off the turnovers.

Mays’ first career interception came in the end zone as he picked off running back Kareem Hunt’s pass and returned it to the NIU 10-yard line with 6:27 to play in the second quarter. The Huskies then drove 52 yards to the Toledo 23, where Mathew Sims’ 40-yard field goal try was wide right.

Rainey forced a Toledo fumble on the first play of the game to give the Huskies the ball on the UT 21-yard line. Three plays later, Spencer ran in from 21 yards out for a touchdown and a 7-0 NIU lead with 13:34 to play in the first quarter.

Two UT possessions later, Jimmie Ward tipped Owens’ pass to himself and made the diving interception to give NIU the ball on its own 22. The Huskies drove to the Toledo six-yard line, but Sims missed a 23-yard field goal.

GAME 12 NIU 33, WESTERN MICHIGAN 14

Nov. 26 | 6 p.m. (CT) | ESPN2
DeKalb, Illinois | Huskie Stadium | 17,679

DEKALB, Ill. – Jordan Lynch ran for 321 yards, breaking his own NCAA FBS record for rushing yards by a quarterback, on 27 carries with three touchdowns as the NIU Huskies defeated Western Michigan, 33-14, on a frigid, snowy Tuesday night at Huskie Stadium.

“Obviously the elements played a huge factor in the game,” said NIU head coach Rod Carey. “It was tough for both teams to throw and kick. I am really happy with the win. You run the ball like we did in those conditions, and score the points that you have to, and then hats off to our defense. We had some guys out with injury, and we held them to just 14 points, so overall I’m really pleased.”

Lynch’s 321 yards bettered his previous career high of 316 set on Oct. 19 at Central Michigan. He also became the fifth quarterback in FBS history with 5,000 career passing yards and 4,000 career rushing yards.

Junior running back Cameron Stingily rushed for 49 yards on 14 carries, eclipsing the 1,000-yard plateau for the season. Lynch and Stingily have become the first duo in school history to reach 1,000 yards in the same season.

NIU opened the scoring as Lynch found sophomore wide receiver Juwan Brescacin from 10 yards out to give the Huskies an early lead. The Brescacin touchdown capped an 8-play, 80-yard drive that also featured a Lynch connection with freshman Aregeros Turner for 23 yards on a key third down.

The Broncos pulled even, 7-7, on the opening drive of the second quarter. Dar-eyon Chance finished the drive with a touchdown run from a yard out to finish a 12-play, 63-yard drive for Western Michigan.

The Huskies responded just 87 seconds later, going 75 yards in six plays to re-gain a seven-point lead. Lynch found the end zone with a 29-yard scramble for the score, giving NIU a 14-7 lead with 9:43 to play in the half. The senior quarter-back from Chicago also had rushes of 19 and 15 yards on the drive.

After forcing a three-and-out from the Western Michigan offense, NIU increased its lead to 20-7 as Lynch found the end zone again on a 36-yard carry. It took the Huskies just five plays to go 77 yards and increase their lead to 13 points going into the half.

On their first drive of the second half, the Huskies used 7:29 to go 78 yards in 18 plays, capped by a 23-yard Mathew Sims field goal as NIU took a 23-7 lead.

Lynch found the end zone again with 1:36 to play in the third quarter, giving NIU a 30-7. Lynch went up the middle for 37 yards and the score on a one-play drive that gave the Huskies a 23-point lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Sims added a 32-yard field goal and Western Michigan’s Antoin Scriven scored from a yard out in the final period as NIU capped its fourth consecutive unde-feated season at Huskie Stadium.

2013 MARATHON MAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

GAME 13 BOWLING GREEN 47, NIU 27

Dec. 6 | 7 p.m. (CT) | ESPN2
Detroit, Mich. | Ford Field | 21,106

DETROIT – The NIU Huskies saw their goal of a third consecutive MAC Championship and dreams of a second BCS bid dashed at Ford Field Friday, as the Bowling Green Falcons scored a decisive 47-27 win in the Marathon MAC title game.

The loss ended the Huskies' school-record tying 12-game winning streak and 26-game conference winning streak as NIU fell to 12-1 on the season, while Bowling Green improved to 10-3 overall.

The Falcons' No. 7-ranked defense held NIU to just 235 yards on 40 attempts despite 126 yards by quarterback Jordan Lynch. Meanwhile, BGSU quarterback Matt Johnson completed 21-of-27 passes for 393 yards and a MAC Championship game record five touchdowns.

Lynch compiled 345 yards of total offense with 126 rushing and 219 passing yards, breaking the NIU records for touchdowns responsible for and touchdowns scored in a season, while tying the school mark for rushing scores. He threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Juwan Brescacin for the Huskies' first score and ran for touchdowns of eight and two yards.

The two teams traded touchdowns on their opening drives with the Falcons scoring on a 28-yard hook-up from Johnson to Tyler Beck, while the Lynch to Brescacin connection tied the game at 9:08 in the first quarter.

Bowling Green took a 17-7 lead at the end of the quarter as big plays continued to hurt the Huskies. Johnson hit Ronnie Moore for 61 yards, setting up a 26-yard field goal by Tyler Tate, and after NIU went three and out on its next possession, Bowling Green came back with a five-play, 76-yard touchdown drive with Moore scoring on a 36-yard catch.

The Huskies cut the deficit to 17-13 after field goals of 51 and 45 yards by kicker Mathew Sims. However, BGSU scored two touchdowns in the last six minutes to take a 31-13 lead into halftime as Johnson connected with Heath Jackson on a 22-yard pass and hit tight end Alex Bayer from 12 yards out.

Lynch and the Huskies narrowed the margin to 31-20 when the Huskies marched 64 yards on seven plays and 2:29 and scored on an eight-yard run. Both kickers missed field goals in the third quarter before Tate hit a 54-yarder at the start of the fourth.

BGSU put two more touchdowns on the board in the quarter while the Huskies could manage just a late Lynch score to leave the final score at 47-27.

2013 SDCCU POINSETTIA BOWL

GAME 14 UTAH STATE 21, NIU 14

Dec. 26 | 8:30 p.m. (CT) | ESPN
San Diego, Calif. | Qualcomm Stadium | 23,408

SAN DIEGO – The NIU Huskies' offense could not get untracked against Utah State in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl game, and despite a valiant effort by the NIU defense, the Huskies fell to the Aggies 21-14 at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

With its second straight loss, NIU ended the season with a 12-2 record while Utah State finished 9-5. The Huskies lost back-to-back games for the first time since suffering losses to Kansas and Wisconsin in consecutive games in 2011.

Lynch completed 20-of-35 passes for 216 yards and one touchdown and ran the ball 18 times for 39 yards and a score. NIU had more first downs (19-17), more passing yards (216-121) and more total yards (315-289) than the Aggies.

The statistics were deceiving, though, because USU was able to shut down Lynch and the Huskies in the second half. After halftime, the Huskies tallied only five first downs, 21 rushing yards on 13 attempts, and 60 passing yards on 6-of-17 passing. NIU went three-and-out on three of its five possessions in the half, with only a successful conversion on a fake punt preventing four consecutive three-and-outs.

Lynch said Utah State grabbed the momentum after he threw an interception on the first play of the half and the Aggies did not allow the Huskies to get it back.

In addition to the offensive woes, NIU had several special teams miscues as kicker Mathew Sims missed a pair of field goals - from 37 yards in the first quarter and 29 in the fourth - and punter Tyler Wedel had a 17-yard punt in the early going.

The Huskie defense, meanwhile, kept Northern Illinois in the game, even with their backs against the wall. After Wedel's punt gave Utah State the ball on the NIU 29, the Huskies forced USU to attempt a 52-yard field goal that missed. When a Lynch fumble gave the Aggies field position at the NIU 46 in the first quarter, the defense stopped USU at the 14 and forced a 31-yard field goal.

In addition to Ward's interception, senior defensive tackle Ken Bishop recorded his second interception of the season, giving the Huskies field position at the Utah State 14 early in the fourth quarter. After two plays netted just two yards, Sims missed from 29 yards.

Utah State's first touchdown came off of Lynch's interception and the final touchdown was scored after NIU's third straight offensive three-and-out. The Aggies grinded out a 16-play, 80-yard drive that took 7:19 off the clock in the fourth quarter that looked to put the game away.

NIU came back with a late score as Lynch connected with Juwan Brescacin on a 15-yard scoring pass with 1:44 left in the game to pull the Huskies within seven at 21-14. However, Wedel's onside kick attempt was recovered by Utah State, ending the comeback hopes and season.

NIU FOOTBALL HISTORY

RETIRED JERSEYS

DAVE PETZKE

6 SE | 1977-78
Faribault, Minn.

In 1978, Dave Petzke made his No. 6 Northern Illinois University football jersey one of the most famous in the land.

At 6-1, 180, Petzke was the master of the sideline curl pattern. His disciplined pass routes drew comparisons to National Football League great Raymond Berry.

In two seasons after transferring from Waldorf (Iowa) College, No. 6 caught 148 career passes for 1,958 yards and 16 touchdowns.

As a junior, Petzke finished seventh in the nation with 57 catches for 743 yards in 1977. A year later, he led the major college ranks with a school and then Mid-American Conference record 91 receptions for 1,215 yards and 11 TDs.

Petzke won the 1978 NCAA Division I-A receiving title by 29 catches. At the time, only three other players in the game's history — Tulsa's Howard Twilley (134), Brigham Young's Jay Miller (100), and Idaho's Jerry Hendren (95) — had caught more passes in one season.

He still owns the Huskie school records for most receptions per game in a season (8.3) and in a career (6.7) and his six 100-yard receiving games in 1978 are tied with Justin McCareins for the single season school record. His 91 catches in 1978 are 14 more than any other player in NIU history.

The Faribault, Minn., product received the school's highest major-college gridiron accolade by making third team Associated Press All-America as a senior.

In 1987, he was inducted into the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame.

GEORGE BORK

11 QB | 1960-63
Mount Prospect, Ill.

George Bork is still synonymous with the forward pass.

America's first collegiate passer at any level of football to throw for 3,000 yards in a season, No. 11 graduated with at least 16 national records. Even with an increasing emphasis on the passing game through the years, Bork still ranks among the all-division NCAA leaders in single-game completions (43), single-season passing efficiency (156.2), and career passing efficiency (141.8) and holds a multitude of NIU records.

The slender 6-1, 178 crew-cut quarterback put coach Howard Fletcher's Huskies on the map. A two-time first team Little All-American, Bork, led Northern Illinois to its first 10-0-0 season, a Mineral Water Bowl triumph, and the College Division national title in 1963.

As a senior, the Mount Prospect, Ill., and Arlington High School product completed 244-of-374 passes for 3,077 yards and 32 touchdowns. He repeated as NCAA College Division passing and total offense leader (1962-63) and played in the North-South Shrine Game and the Challenge Bowl with teammate Hugh Rohrschneider.

He still owns at least eight NIU passing records, including touchdown passes (game and season), 400-yard passing games (season and career) and passing efficiency (game).

Bork was inducted into the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1983. His No. 11 jersey was retired at halftime vs. Western Illinois on Sept. 7, 1996. He gained entry into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

RETIRED JERSEYS

BOB HEIMERDINGER

12 QB | 1948-51
Riverside, Ill.

When you talk about great Northern Illinois University quarterbacks, Bob Heimerdinger has a place at the top of the list.

The 5-9, 160 Heimerdinger — better known as the “Huskie humdinger” in those days (1948-51) — authored a long list of Northern Illinois “firsts.”

“Heimer” became the school’s first national statistical champion — winning the College Division total offense crown in both 1950 (1,782 yards) and 1951 (1,775 yards). As a senior, he led the Huskies to a 9-0-0 record, the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Association title, and a bid to the then-Tangerine Bowl.

The Riverside-Brookfield High School product was Mr. Versatility. Throw the ball? No. 12 topped the nation in passing yardage (1,710) and touchdown strikes (16) in 1949. Run? His 78-yard TD rush vs. Nebraska-Omaha in 1949 still ranks among the 14 longest in school history. Punt? Who do you think rated ninth in the country at 38.3 yards per kick in 1951?

Nearly 60 years later, Heimerdinger still ranks at the top of several NIU passing categories and still owns the Huskie marks for yards per completion in a season and a career.

Inducted into the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1983, “Heimer” was the first player to have his jersey retired in 1951.

MARK KELLAR

31 FB | 1971-73
Carpentersville, Ill.

Northern Illinois University fullback Mark Kellar ran in the same circles as Tony Dorsett, Archie Griffin, John Cappelletti, and other great backs of his day.

His running style might be compared to a runaway, 100-car freight train. The only thing that successfully derailed Kellar was an appendectomy his sophomore year. He missed two games and still netted 710 ground yards in 1971.

People nicknamed him the “Carpentersville Cruncher” or “Baby Bull” for good reason. As a junior, his 1,316 yards ranked sixth in the NCAA.

As a senior, the 6-0, 232-pounder bulldozed for 1,719 yards and 16 touchdowns on 291 carries to capture the 1973 NCAA Division I-A rushing championship. He beat national runner-up Dorsett by 133 yards and Griffin by 291 more that fall. Kellar produced three 200-yard plus rushing games, made four honorable mention All-America squads, was named to the United Press International National Backfield of the Week twice, and played in the North-South Shrine Game in 1973.

No. 31 concluded his Huskie career with 3,745 yards, 743 attempts, 33 TDs, and 20 100-yard rushing games. He was the 18th player in the history of major-college football to crack the 3,000-yard barrier.

Most of Kellar’s records were intact until the last five years and he remains one of the most prolific fullbacks in NCAA history.

Kellar’s jersey was retired in ceremonies after his final home game vs. Western Illinois (11-3-73) and placed in a time capsule buried near Altgeld Hall. He was enshrined in the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1983.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAMERS

GEORGE BORK

QB, 1960-63 | Inducted in 1999

It was akin to one of his many spiral passes. Another George Bork classic. For the iconic Northern Illinois University quarterback of the 1960s, a dream came true in August 1999, when Bork became the first Huskie enshrined in the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame.

More than 40 years after his last collegiate pass, Bork's name still dominates the passing section of the Huskie record book, and he continues to rank among the all-time NCAA leaders in several aerial categories.

America's first collegiate passer at any level to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season, Bork's Huskies made national headlines. With the fabled Blitz-T formation, NIU was the gridiron version of a high-scoring, fast-paced basketball offense.

A two-time unanimous Little All-America pick, Bork received votes on the Associated Press and United Press International major-college All-America units and garnered support in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior when Northern Illinois went 10-0-0, won the Mineral Water Bowl, and captured the AP and NAIA College Division National Championship in 1963. That success led to "The House That Bork Built"—the new Huskie Stadium in 1965—and NCAA Division I-A status in 1969.

The Mount Prospect, Ill., native and product of Arlington High School graduated from NIU with at least 16 national records. He completed 244-of-374 passes for 3,077 yards and 32 touchdowns during his mind-boggling senior year (1963). Bork repeated as the NCAA College Division passing and total offense statistical champion in 1962 and 1963. The same right arm that accounted for 6,782 career air yards and 60 TDs (1960-63) also produced 1,114 career points in basketball at Northern Illinois where he also earned NAIA honorable mention All-America honors as a junior.

"We were on the cutting edge. We were one of the first teams that went almost exclusively to passing," Bork said of his NIU offense. "Fletch [NIU head coach Howard Fletcher] was way ahead of his time. We had a very innovative coach. After our years of throwing the ball, it became in vogue to do it. Jerry Rhome (of Tulsa), who went into the Hall of Fame with me, broke a lot of my records the very next year (1964). It became trendy to throw the ball. It started a trend in college and pro football until the defenses became dominant.

"In one game, I think we threw the ball 64 times (a school-record 68 in a 27-22 conference championship-clinching victory vs. Central Michigan in 1963). At that time, that was pretty much unheard of, because of the uniqueness of what we were doing and the fact that we were winning all the time. It just really made for an exciting time."

In those pre-ESPN days, Bork and the Huskies became media darlings. The crew-cut quarterback was profiled nationally in Sports Illustrated, Time, the New York Times, the New York Post, and the Christian Science Monitor.

As a prep, Bork's best sport was basketball. He turned down a scholarship at Michigan in order to play both sports at Northern Illinois.

TOM BECK

QB/HB, 1959-61 | Inducted in 2004

The man known as the last and probably the finest 60-minute, two-way player in Northern Illinois University history became the school's second alum to be enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in August 2004.

A double Northern Illinois graduate (1962 and 1967), Beck joined former Huskie teammate and fellow Little All-American selection George Bork in the College Football Hall of Fame.

"I feel honored to be alongside George," Beck said. "When he came to campus in 1960, I knew he threw the ball better than I did. And that's when Fletch (Northern Illinois head football coach Howard Fletcher) asked me to play halfback. George was an outstanding passer, a great punter, and a super athlete. Believe me, I was just happy to be playing."

A three-year Huskie football letterman (1959-61), Beck made the school's All-Century Team (1999) and was inducted into the NIU Athletics Hall of Fame (1987). As a Northern Illinois senior, he was named second team

NAIA All-American at halfback, second team Academic All-American, first team NAIA All-District 20, first team All-Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference on both offense and defense, and Peoria Journal Star All-State, plus team MVP and tri-captain. Fletcher called him the "finest all-around player" in his 13-year NIU head coaching tenure.

Beck later demonstrated that same versatility during his coaching career at every level. During his sideline tenure, Beck posted a 137-52-1 record and a .724 winning percentage as the head coach at Illinois Benedictine (37-12-1 in 1970-74), Elmhurst College (50-22 in 1976-83), and Grand Valley State (50-18 in 1985-90). He entered the profession as head coach at West Leyden (1962-64) and Lake Zurich (1965-66) high schools. Beck also served as offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois (1975), Notre Dame (1991), and Illinois (1992). In the pros, he coached a year for Marv Levy and the Chicago Blitz of the United States Football League (1984) and scouted two years for the National Football League's Chicago Bears and Buffalo Bills.

At Benedictine, Beck took a grid program that had endured 18 straight losing seasons and led the Eagles to 6-3, 8-2, 9-2, 7-3, and 7-2-1 marks, plus national Top 10 rankings and team statistical championships. In 1971 and 1972, he was named NAIA District 20 Coach of the Year.

Beck resurrected the Elmhurst grid fortunes in the same manner. Prior to his arrival, the Bluejays had only two winning years in 23 seasons.

The Chicago product did similar magic at Grand Valley State. He inherited an 0-10 GVSU team that would do a "180-degree" turn and finish 11-1 (1989) and 10-2 (1990). Beck was named Kodak NCAA College Division Region Coach of the Year in both those seasons for the Lakers.

"I really enjoyed my playing days at Northern," Beck recalled. "I had the great fortune to play with some great guys."

HUSKIE HALL OF FAME

1951 - UNDEFEATED IIAC CHAMPIONS

The year was 1951. In a rural hamlet named DeKalb, the Northern Illinois State Teachers College football squad put together a “humdinger” of a season.

Yes, it was a very good year. Those 1951 Huskies—one of only four undefeated, untied teams in the school’s football history—went 9-0-0, captured the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Association title, and outscored the opposition 223-101.

Mind you, this was not the average College Division team. With the school’s first National Football League draft pick, another professional free agent, and the country’s total offense leader, it is no wonder that Northern Illinois almost won a Tangerine Bowl bid.

“NI’s Huskies of 1951 were a passing team, first, last, and three out of four times. As a team, the Huskies threw more and completed more passes for more yards than any other college team in the nation,” the 1952 Northern yearbook bragged.

The innovative genius behind this team was Northern Illinois athletics patriarch George “Chick” Evans. His main trigger man — senior quarterback Bob Heimerdinger.

The crew-cut Heimerdinger set coach Evans’ pro-type T-formation in motion. The 5-9 signal-caller did it all. A first team Associated Press Little All-American and the team and league Most Valuable Player, Heimerdinger was one of seven Northern Illinois performers honored as a First-Team All-IIAC choice.

NIU finished the season as the nation’s College Division total offense kingpin (1,775 yards) for the second year in a row. Ranked No. 1 in passing yardage (1,710 yards) and touchdown passes (16), and No. 2 in completions (103-of-225), Heimerdinger also ranked ninth in punting (38.3-yard average).

At 6-2, 192 pounds, Fran Cahill was Heimerdinger’s favorite receiver. A fellow future Northern Illinois Hall of Famer, he led the nation in receiving yardage (876), TD receptions (11), and ranked fourth in catches (40).

Jack Pheanis started at fullback in 1951, contributing 254 ground yards and invaluable pass-blocking.

Jim Lamb played opposite Cahill at end with Billy Graham (395 yards rushing) and Dick Schmidt (306 yards) at halfback. Co-captains George Acker and Frank Bieber anchored the offensive line at guard with All-IIAC Tony Biondi and Gil Memmen at tackle, and Wally Beckman at center.

Four other Huskie standouts won All-IIAC recognition on defense—freshman linebacker Leo Schmidt, tackle Steve Mash, end Julius Brasini, and safety Dan Mojica.

The Huskie defense picked off 29 passes — 10 by Al Jones and eight by Mojica.

Homecoming king Heimerdinger helped the alums celebrate in a 39-13 triumph over Illinois State with a then school-record six TD passes (four to Cahill, including an 83-yarder). In the same contest, Northern Illinois picked off seven ISU aerials—four by Mojica.

Evans’ men put on a vintage performance in the 1951 regular-season finale at Nebraska-Omaha by winning in the final 35 seconds on kicker Pat McKillen’s PAT kick after an unbelievable comeback.

Gung ho with the news of a possible post-season bowl berth, Northern Illinois scored first, stalled, and then rallied from a 26-6 deficit in the final 16 minutes. Touchdown catches by Cahill (13 yards) and Brasini (54 yards), plus McKillen’s foot, closed the gap to 26-20.

Forcing a punt, the Huskies’ Len Scaduto returned it to the Omaha 45-yard line. Three plays later, Heimerdinger faced fourth down and 10. Fading back to pass and finding no open receivers, he scrambled up the middle, dodging three tacklers for a 24-yard gain.

Two plays and 15 yards later, Evans put two quarterbacks in the backfield. Heimerdinger hit QB-turned-halfback Mojica with a flat pass worth six yards and six points with 0:35 left on the clock. Enter McKillen and a 27-26 win. Corn, Cigar, or Tangerine Bowl, anyone?

Northern Illinois’ governing body, the State Teachers College Board, nixed the bid because acceptance of one would extend the season almost seven weeks (from Nov. 17 until Jan. 1) and could “even become a detriment to the educational program.”

Approximately 600 NISTC students and townspeople welcomed the victors Sunday evening at the Chicago & North Western train depot after the Nebraska-Omaha game.

The 1951 team was enshrined in the Huskie Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

Quarterback Bob Heimerdinger helped lead NIU to the 1951 IIAC title.

HUSKIE HALL OF FAME

1963 - UNDEFEATED NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Perfect. No. 1. National Champion.

A select few college football teams can fill that billing. Northern Illinois University earned the title in 1963.

Voted the country's top College Division unit by the Associated Press and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, the Huskies put together more than the 10-0-0 season and the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship.

The year that made George Bork famous. Coast-to-coast notoriety. Those 10 triumphs, including the 21-14 victory over Missouri State in the Mineral Water Bowl, represent one of the finest campaigns in the school's rich gridiron legacy.

Interest in the weekly Northern Illinois scores—highlighted by such numbers as 55-7, 61-0, and 43-0 twice—almost appeared incidental to the Huskie style of play.

Of course, there were some close games, such as the 27-22 success at Central Michigan for the IAC title, or the come-from-behind 29-22 win over Western Illinois the week before. But the real story, of course, was Howard Fletcher's coaching genius and Bork's passing wizardry. The two became synonymous with the forward pass.

The slender 6-1, 178-pound Northern Illinois quarterback pumped the airways full of footballs, mind-boggling stats, and countless records—at least 16 national marks at the end of his senior season. Look at the current school records, Bork still holds 17 Huskie standards in passing and total offense.

America's first collegiate passer to reach 3,000 yards in a single season (3,077 on 244-of-374 completions and 32 touchdowns), Bork managed incredible feats from Fletcher's famed shotgun, spread, or blitz-T formation.

In the IAC championship showdown versus Central Michigan, he completed a record 43-of-68 pass attempts. During the last 93 seconds of the first half, Bork led a 72-yard touchdown march by connecting on 10-of-15 aerials. In 93 seconds.

Against Western Illinois, Bork defied a defense dug in to stop the short pass. Trailing 22-16 in the final period, Bork dodged two linemen, and launched a high-arching pass down the sideline to Gary Stearns in stride for a 66-yard TD bomb.

Obviously, Bork had a lot of help from his friends—starting with a great blocking offensive front that included center Bob Evans, guards Roger Smith and Dennis Harrison, and tackles Ken Slimko and Dave Mulderink.

Naturally, the Huskies' one-two receivers—Hugh Rohrschneider (75 catches for 1,036 yards and 14 TDs in 1963) and Stearns (68 grabs for 931 yards and nine TDs)—ranked the same way nationally. Versatile Jack Dean finished No. 4 in the nation.

One of eight individuals from the 1963 squad to be enshrined in the Northern Illinois Hall of Fame (Fletcher, Bork, Rohrschneider, Stearns, and assistant coaches Bob Brigham, Jack Pheanis, and John Wrenn are the others), Dean was the all-purpose halfback. He rushed for 516 yards, caught 43 balls for 553 yards, and produced 260 more yards on punt and kickoff returns that season.

By November, the Huskies were household words. Banner headlines proclaimed "Bork Dazzles" in bold type. A three-page spread "A Big Man in Any League" appeared in Sports Illustrated (Nov 11, 1963). There was mention in Time.

Bork-Rohrschneider game film highlights went national on CBS-TV and the All-America duo's appearance in the North-South Shrine Game at the Orange Bowl made ABC-TV's "Wide World of Sports." A Bork interview beamed nationwide on NBC radio's "Weekend Monitor." He was the subject of a sports cartoon in the Christian Science Monitor and a full-page feature in the New York Daily News.

A record 11 Northern Illinois performers received first team All-IAC recognition, starting with 1963 co-captains Bork and linebacker Mike Henigan. The others included Rohrschneider, Dean, Stearns, Mulderink, Evans, Smith, defensive end Lynn McCann, defensive tackle Dave Herstedt, and middle guard Tom Walz.

Individually, Bork led the way with a carload of honors: Huskie and IAC Most Valuable Player for the second year in a row, first team Little All-American by AP, UPI, NAIA, and the Williamson Rating Service, plus votes on the AP and UPI major-college units. Rohrschneider also caught Little All-America honors—second team by the AP and third team by the NAIA. Both Evans and Stearns won honorable mention berths from the NAIA.

The success of this Northern Illinois team sparked plans for a new home on the west side of campus—Huskie Stadium—and an eventual move to the University Division ranks in 1969.

The 1963 team was enshrined in the Huskie Athletics Hall of Fame in 1986.

HUSKIE HALL OF FAME

1983 - MAC AND CALIFORNIA BOWL CHAMPIONS

Oh, what a year. The Championship Season. From Lawrence, Kansas, to Fresno, Calif., Northern Illinois beat the odds.

These Huskies achieved a series of firsts: a MAC championship; NIU's first triumph over a Big Eight Conference opponent; the school's first major bowl appearance and victory; a school-record 10 triumphs in 12 games; and a No. 30 ranking in the final Associated Press "major" poll.

Ultimately, this Northern Illinois football team would produce seven National Football League draft choices, 19 professional players, eight All-Americans and five individual inductees into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame.

Picked sixth in the official pre-season MAC poll, people in DeKalb knew differently. After all, coach Bill Mallory's Huskies headed into 1983 on the momentum of three straight triumphs at the end of the previous season.

On the surface, Northern Illinois may have finished 5-5-0 the year before. By the end of the 1982 season, the Huskies developed the soundness, balance, and maturity that were hallmarks of Mallory-coached ballclubs.

By 1983 the Huskies were making believers out of everyone and California Bowl fever raged in DeKalb.

Some caught the bug sooner than others. Perhaps during the 37-34 upset victory at Kansas. Maybe sooner, such as during two-a-day practices in August.

On November 19, the soon-to-be crowned MAC champions waited for the seconds to disappear from the Huskie Stadium scoreboard clock.

The NIU Band played "California Dreamin'."

Victory-starved fans started on the field with 27 seconds left. One enterprising student "hung five" in the end zone on a surfboard. At the final gun, a sea of Northern Illinois red stormed the field and the Huskie Stadium goalposts went down for a MAC record fifth time. For the second straight

Saturday, that AstroTurf surface hosted the largest outdoor party in school history.

For the first time since the Mineral Water Bowl in 1965, a Northern Illinois football team had somewhere to spend the postseason—a December 17 date against Pacific Coast Athletic Association kingpin Cal State Fullerton in Fresno.

On December 17, true to form, "America's Most Exciting Bowl" went down to the last 35 seconds when Jeff Sanders preserved Northern Illinois' 20-13 triumph by chasing Titan quarterback Damon Allen out of bounds on a fourth-and-one play at the CSF 48.

Nose guard Doug Bartlett anchored the defensive line of the 1983 Huskies.

Wearing his Northern Illinois No. 30 for the final time, fullback Lou Wicks emerged as one of the major heroes – winning the Pacific Southwest Airlines' team Most Valuable Player award with a career-best 119 yards on 14 carries. The 5-8, 198-pound fireplug made key blocks on both of tailback Darryl Richardson's touchdown runs. On the Huskies' fifth play of the game,

Wicks bulldozed around the right end for 39 yards to set up a Vince Scott 23-yard field goal, and later he burst up the middle on a draw for 30 more yards and a Scott 42-yard three-pointer with 12:09 left to play.

With 5:25 remaining, on fourth-and-one on its own 20-yard line, NIU sent Tim Tyrrell on a sneak behind offensive guard Todd Peat. The first down allowed Northern Illinois to milk almost four minutes off the clock. Fullerton's final series started on its own 25 with 1:48 left.

The victory was NIU's first bowl win as a major college.

Seven Huskies from the 1983 squad went on to be drafted in the National Football League from 1984-87. OT Scott Bolzan was selected in the ninth round (New England Patriots) in 1984 and two years later, DT Scott Kellar (5th round, Indianapolis Colts), SE Curt Partridge (6th round, San Diego Chargers), and DT Steve O'Malley (7th round, Indianapolis Colts) had their name called at the NFL Draft. In 1987, three more members of NIU's 1983 championship team were drafted as NG Doug Bartlett (4th round, Los Angeles Rams), LB Clarence Vaughn (8th round, Washington Redskins), and OG Todd Peat (11th round, St. Louis Cardinals) were chosen that year.

The 1983 team was enshrined in the Huskie Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995.

JORDAN LYNCH

In just two years, Jordan Lynch helped launch Northern Illinois University into the national spotlight.

Upon taking over the starting quarterback duties in 2012 after spending the previous two seasons as NIU's change-of-pace quarterback, the hard-nosed, dual-threat signal caller from Chicago's Mt. Greenwood neighborhood immediately became the central part of the Huskies' high-powered offense. Within weeks, NIU broke into the national rankings and Lynch was seen as a darkhorse candidate for the Heisman Trophy.

While he wasn't invited to New York City for the Heisman Trophy ceremony, Lynch did lead the Huskies to uncharted territory. After guiding NIU to a double-overtime 44-37 win over #16 Kent State in the MAC Championship Game, the Huskies were awarded with a bid to the 2013 Orange Bowl to face Florida State. Despite the loss to the Seminoles, Lynch finished the year with 4,953 yards of total offense and was responsible for 44 touchdowns, helping him finish seventh in the final Heisman balloting.

When some questioned whether he could replicate his historic 2012 season, the Chicagoan exceeded those figures in 2013. While helping the Huskies to an undefeated regular season, Lynch accumulated an NCAA QB-record 1,920 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns to go along with 2,892 passing yards and 24 aerial scores. On Oct. 19, he set an NCAA record for quarterbacks with 316 rushing yards against Central Michigan, then surpassed his mark with 321 on Nov. 26 against Western Michigan.

A second-straight record-setting season did get Lynch and invite to the 2013 Heisman Trophy ceremony, where he finished third in the final balloting with 558 points and 40 first-place votes - the highest finish for any player from a MAC school.

BOWL HISTORY

1983 California Bowl

NIU 20, CAL STATE FULLERTON 13

Dec. 17, 1983 | ESPN/Mizlou Network
Fresno, Calif. | Bulldog Stadium | 20,464

Northern Illinois used a pair of touchdown runs by Darryl Richardson and two field goals by Vince Scott on its way to a 20-13 victory over Cal State Fullerton in the California Bowl.

After the teams traded first quarter field goals, the Huskies and Titans swapped second quarter touchdowns on the way to a 10-10 halftime tie. Richardson scored the first TD of the contest on a three-yard run midway through the second and Fullerton answered on its ensuing drive when Damon Allen hit Corn Redick on a 25-yard touchdown pass.

Lou Wicks rushed for 117 yards in the California Bowl victory.

Richardson, who entered the game as the nation's 10th leading rusher, scored on a four-yard run in the third quarter to put NIU ahead to stay. The Huskies extended the lead to 20-10 when Scott booted a 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. The Titans capped the scoring midway through the fourth when Greg Steinke connected on a 40-yard field goal.

Huskie fullback Lou Wicks totaled 117 rushing yards while Richardson added 67 for the NIU option attack. Quarterback Tim Tyrrell completed 10-of-18 passes for 119 yards and ran for 37 more behind a line that featured Todd Peat.

NIU finished 10-2 on the season while Fullerton enjoyed their best Division I-A season at 7-5.

2004 Silicon Valley Classic

NIU 34, TROY 21

Dec. 30, 2004 | ESPN2
San Jose, Calif. | Spartan Stadium | 21,456

Josh Haldi passed for 146 yards and rushed for two touchdowns to lead Northern Illinois through mud and rain to its first bowl victory in 21 years, 34-21 over Troy in the Silicon Valley Football Classic.

The Huskies (9-3) overcame a steady downpour, lighting problems and a delayed kickoff by scoring 34 consecutive points.

Tailback Garrett Wolfe, the NCAA's scoring co-leader, rushed for his 21st touchdown of the season before leaving with a hip injury. But A.J. Harris filled in with 120 yards rushing and another score as the Huskies methodically erased a quick start by the Trojans (7-5), who scored two touchdowns in the first nine minutes of the game.

Down 14-0, Wolfe scored on a 50-yard TD run while setting the school record for touchdowns (21) on the play. Haldi ran for a pair of one-yard touchdowns sandwiched around a Chris Nendick field goal as NIU took a 24-14 halftime lead.

Nendick booted a second field goal and Harris scored on a three-yard run to put NIU ahead 34-14 before Troy added a fourth quarter TD.

Joe Novak lifts the championship trophy after a 34-21 victory.

2006 Poinsettia Bowl

TCU 37, NIU 7

Dec. 19, 2006 | ESPN

San Diego, Calif. | Qualcomm Stadium | 29,709

A powerful TCU defense shut down the Huskie offensive attack while the Horned Frogs' offense wore down the Northern Illinois defense en route to a 37-7 victory in the 2006 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

TCU took an early 6-0 lead on a four-yard run by Lonta Hobbs thanks to a short punt that resulted in great field position. NIU was unable to take advantage of a blocked punt by Dustin Utschig and TCU added to its lead on the first of quarterback Jeff Ballard's three touchdown runs, this one from 10 yards out with 14:49 left in the second.

The Huskies got their best scoring chance of the half as they mounted a seven-play, 53-yard drive to the TCU 34-yard line. But Chris Nendick's 51-yard field goal attempt fell short and the Horned Frogs got a 25-yard three-pointer from Chris Manfredini as the half ended to take a 16-0 lead. TCU extended their lead to 23-0 on the first possession of the second half as Ballard scored on a one-yard run. Another long punt return set up a Ballard six-yard TD run to give the Frogs a 30-0 lead.

The Huskies lone score of the game came at the start of the fourth quarter when Jarret Carter blocked a Brian Cortney punt and John Tranchitella returned it 32 yards for the score.

TCU ended the season 11-2 while the Huskies capped their 2006 campaign with a 7-6 record.

Matt Simon set a NIU bowl record with his 62-yard catch.

LOUISIANA TECH 17, NIU 10

Dec. 28, 2008 | ESPN

Shreveport, La. | Independence Stadium | 41,567

Northern Illinois out-gained Louisiana Tech in rushing, passing and total offense at the 33rd Annual Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., but committed a season-high three turnovers and gave up a momentum-turning kickoff return to fall 17-10.

Philip Livas' 97-yard kickoff return with 1:43 left in the first quarter proved to be the difference in a defensive struggle.

The play came immediately after NIU scored the game's first touchdown on an eight-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb. That play capped a 69-yard drive as NIU dominated time of possession in the first quarter, 11:46 to 3:14.

After a 15-yard punt gave La Tech field position at the NIU 42-yard line, the Bulldogs took just five plays go ahead for good 14-7 on Daniel Porter's 11 yard run.

The Bulldogs extended their lead to 17-7 on their first drive of the second half as they went 49 yards in eight plays before stalling at the NIU 13-yard line. From there, Brad Oestricher hit a 33-yard field goal.

NIU answered with a 10-play, 86-yard drive. Harnish hit Marcus Perez with a 40-yard pass play to the La Tech eight and Mike Salerno hit a 20-yard field goal to close the margin to seven points to complete the scoring. Louisiana Tech finished 2008 with an 8-5 mark while NIU ended at 6-7.

Chandler Harnish completed 20 of 40 passes for 186 yards and a touchdown.

2010 Humanitarian Bowl

NIU 40, FRESNO STATE 17

Dec. 18, 2010 | ESPN
Boise, Idaho | Bronco Stadium | 25,449

NIU won its school record 11th game of the season with a dominating 40-17 win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl on the blue turf of Bronco Stadium in Boise, Idaho.

The Huskies relied on quarterback Chandler Harnish, tailback Chad Spann and defensive end Jake Coffman to lead the way, with a healthy dose of help from their friends on the NIU offensive and defensive lines.

Harnish completed 17-of-27 passes for a season-best 300 yards and ran for 72 yards on 10 carries to earn NIU Most Valuable Player honors. He scored a pair of rushing touchdowns in the first half on runs of seven and 28 yards, and hit fullback Kyle Skarb with a 22-yard scoring toss at the end of the first half to put Northern Illinois ahead 23-10.

NIU did not let up in the second half, with Mike Cklamovski booting a career-long 51-yard field goal to give the Huskies a 26-10 lead.

Spann ended each of NIU's next two possessions with touchdowns as NIU extended its lead to 40-10. He finished the game with 95 yards on 15 carries. In between his scores, the Huskie defense earned a huge stop, forcing an FSU fumble at the NIU eight-yard line to end the Bulldogs' last serious threat.

Coffman recorded a career best three quarterback sacks, all in the first half, as part of a Huskie defensive effort that included six sacks and 14 tackles for loss. Fresno State gained just 74 yards rushing on 35 carries, while NIU piled up 503 yards of total offense.

To cap off the day, as the final seconds were counted down, a torrent of snow fell on the Bronco Stadium turf, covering the beautiful blue field in white.

2012 GoDaddy.com Bowl

NIU 38, ARKANSAS STATE 20

Jan. 8, 2012 | ESPN

Mobile, Ala. | Ladd Peebles Stadium | 38,734

Northern Illinois completed a season of comebacks by overcoming a 13-0 deficit to defeat Arkansas State, 38-20, in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

Chandler Harnish, who earned MVP honors after completing 18-of-36 passes for 274 yards with two TDs, left the game briefly in the second quarter. In his absence, sophomore Jordan Lynch directed a seven-play, 78-yard touchdown drive. He hit Martel Moore with a 41-yard reception for one of Moore's eight catches before scoring on a three-yard touchdown run. The ensuing PAT put the Huskies ahead to stay, 14-13.

NIU extended its lead to 21-13 before halftime on a one-yard run by Jamal Womble on fourth down with no time on the clock. Arkansas State twice gave NIU the ball back in the final minutes of the half, first on a muffed punt recovered by Dominique Ware and second on a roughing the punter penalty.

Moore caught a 43-yard touchdown pass on a double reverse to give the Huskies a 28-13 lead in the third quarter after the teams traded interceptions to open the period.

NIU extended the lead to 31-13 in the fourth quarter on Mathew Sims' 22-yard field goal before ASU's scored with 11:12 remaining to end a string of 31 consecutive points by the Huskies. That catch pulled the Red Wolves within 11 at 31-20 before Dechane Durante's INT completed the win.

The NIU defense, which forced five turnovers, held ASU to a pair of field goals on its first two drives. The Wolves got into the end zone on its third possession, on a two-yard run by QB Ryan Aplin to finish a three-play, 41-yard drive, but would not see the end zone again until the fourth quarter.

2013 Discover Orange Bowl

FLORIDA STATE 31, NIU 10

Jan. 1, 2013 | ESPN

Miami Gardens, Fla. | Sun Life Stadium | 72,073

Florida State's Lonnie Pryor ran for 134 yards and two scores as Northern Illinois saw its 12-game winning streak snapped, 31-10, in the Discover Orange Bowl.

FSU QB E.J. Manuel was 26-of-38 for 291 yards and a touchdown, while NIU quarterback Jordan Lynch completed 15-of-41 passes for 176 yards.

After a Lynch punt put the Seminoles on their own five-yard line, it took FSU four plays to go 95 yards. Pryor ran 60 yards for the score and a 7-0 Florida State lead with 5:28 to play in the first quarter.

Northern Illinois answered with a 25-yard Mathew Sims field goal set up by a 35-yard run by Desroy Maxwell on a fake punt. One play later, Lynch connected with Tommylee Lewis on a 25-yard swing pass to the Seminole six.

FSU increased its lead to 14-3 before halftime, marching 82 yards in 10 plays. Manuel hit Rashad Greene with a six-yard pass with 11 seconds on the clock.

Florida State added a field goal on its first drive of the second half to take a 17-3 lead. The Seminoles advanced to the NIU two-yard line, but had to settle for a 25-yard Dustin Hopkins field goal.

The Huskies answered with a six-play, 87-yard drive, spurred by a 55-yard catch and run by Akeem Daniels and a 22-yard Lynch rush to the FSU 11. Lynch hit Martel Moore to cut the lead to 17-10 at 9:55 of the third quarter.

NIU surprised the Seminoles with an onside kick that was recovered by Paris Logan at the Huskie 47-yard line. Northern Illinois advanced to the Florida State 23 before Lynch was intercepted, ending the NIU threat.

After an exchange of punts, Florida State pushed its lead back to 14 as Manuel scored from nine yards out. FSU regained the ball on a Huskie fumble and two plays later, Pryor went 37 yards up the middle for a Seminole touchdown to give Florida State a 31-10 lead with 10:33 to play in the fourth quarter.

BOWL HISTORY

2013 SDCCU Poinsettia Bowl

UTAH STATE 21, NIU 14

Dec. 19, 2006 | ESPN

San Diego, Calif. | Qualcomm Stadium | 23,408

The NIU offense could not get untracked against Utah State in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl game, and despite a valiant effort by the NIU defense, the Huskies fell to the Aggies, 21-14, at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

With its second straight loss, NIU ended the season with a 12-2 record while Utah State finished 9-5. The Huskies lost back-to-back games for the first time since suffering losses to Kansas and Wisconsin in consecutive games in 2011.

The loss ended the careers of 16 Huskie seniors who comprised the winningest senior class in school history, led by record-setting quarterback Jordan Lynch and All-America safety Jimmie Ward.

Lynch completed 20-of-35 passes for 216 yards and one touchdown and ran the ball 18 times for 39 yards and a score. NIU had more first downs (19-17), more passing yards (216-121) and more total yards (315-289) than the Aggies.

Utah State grabbed the momentum after he threw an interception on the first play of the half and the Aggies did not allow the Huskies to get it back.

Utah State's first touchdown came off of Lynch's interception and the final touchdown was scored after NIU's third straight offensive three-and-out. The Aggies grinded out a 16-play, 80-yard drive that took 7:19 off the clock in the fourth quarter that looked to put the game away.

NIU came back with a late score as Lynch connected with Juwan Brescacin on a 15-yard scoring pass with 1:44 left in the game to pull the Huskies within seven at 21-14. However, Wedel's onside kick attempt was recovered by Utah State, ending the comeback hopes and season.
